- 12.1. The License term under this Agreement commences on the date specified for this matter in the Transaction Documents (and if such a date is not specified in the Transaction Documents - the date on which Licensee was permitted, by SaiFlow, to use the Platform under the License) and shall continue to be in full force and effect until termination or expiration of the applicable License, without derogating from SaiFlow's right to terminate and revoke the License and/or this Agreement, at its sole discretion, without notice to Licensee, if Licensee and/or User fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Agreement, without prejudice to the right of SaiFlow to be indemnified for its damages and for any other right and remedy.

- 13.2. The parties hereby expressly and irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Israeli courts, in connection with any Dispute. Each party expressly and irrevocably waives any right that it may have to object to an action being brought in such courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inconvenient forum, or to claim that such courts do not have jurisdiction.
- 13.3. Notwithstanding the above, in the event that SaiFlow requires injunctive relief in order to prevent infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights of SaiFlow, it may seek such relief from any competent court anywhere in the world where such infringement takes place – at which case lex fori shall apply to such proceedings (rather than the law governing this Agreement).

Any other notices can be sent to either of the parties by email to the email addresses stated in the Transaction Documents or (in the case of notices provided by SaiFlow) via the Platform's user interface. Notice that is sent by email and/or via the Platform's user interface shall be deemed to have been delivered upon sending thereof unless sent not on a business day, in which case such notice shall be deemed to have been made to the other party on the next business day following receipt, and unless the sender receives an "out of office", an "undeliverable" or similar notice indicating the email was not delivered.
- 14.7. The Licensee may not assign or otherwise transfer the License and/or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, either in whole or in part, to any third party without the prior written consent of SaiFlow, and any purported assignment or transfer without SaiFlow's prior written consent shall be null and void. All changes to this Agreement are effective immediately upon publication of the updated terms on the Platform. Licensee or User(s) continued use of the Platform and/or Services after the publication of the updated terms will be deemed acceptance on Licensee or User(s) behalf of any and all such changes.
- 14.9. This Agreement does not create any obligation of a party to any third parties, nor shall it be deemed to create any rights or causes of action on behalf of any third parties.
