

“Right” and “On Mission” (with God)

ROMANS 15:14-33

Ro 15:15^(ESV) 15But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God

Review the Sermon

Read Romans 15:14-33.

What does Paul’s discussion about travel plans in this letter say about the connection between theology and regular life?

What are some key factors to being on mission with God?

Why does Paul describe prayer as “striving together”?

Assess your Life

Regarding your place in God’s mission, how would you complete the sentence, “I am a _____”?

How have you struggled to identify your priorities and make realistic plans or goals?

What would you say is your life-purpose based on the place God has given you?

Apply the Truth

How should you respond to things not going as planned?

How can you integrate your “spiritual life” and your “regular life” into one undivided life?

What step can you take today in living out your God-given purpose?

Commit this Week

Will you respond this week to God’s grace by answering his call to do the work he has for you to complete?

Ro 15:20^(ESV) ²⁰and thus I make it my ambition to preach the gospel, not where Christ has already been named, lest I build on someone else's foundation,
