

Unpredictable Ways

JUDGES 3:7-31

---

You can count on God to do what He promises.

You just can't count on Him doing it the way you expect.

Review the Sermon

Read Judges 3:7-31.

How does Ehud's story intentionally break the mold of Othniel's template?

---

---

Why is Ehud's left-handedness such a significant detail in the story?

---

---

In what ways does Ehud's mission resemble the suffering and humiliation of Jesus?

---

---

---

Assess your Life

Where in your life do you most want predictability? Where do you want God to be predictable in what he does?

---

---

How do you usually respond when God works in ways that make you uncomfortable?

---

---

What fears surface when you consider fully trusting God's unpredictable ways?

---

---

---

Apply the Truth

What is a current situation where God wants you to trust him without seeing the outcome?

---

---

How can you intentionally stop trying to figure out what God is up to?

---

---

What does it look like for you to do the messy work God has placed right in front of you?

---

---

---

Commit this Week

This week, will you commit to trusting God's unpredictable ways by faithfully doing the work he places before you without seeking to control the outcome?

---

---

---

---

God chooses unlikely people to accomplish His purposes.
