Difficult Words of Life

JOHN 6:60-71

"Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life," (John 6:68, ESV)

Review the Sermon

The difficult words of Jesus are life-giving words; believers should lean into them in surrender, repentance, and reception.

Read John 6:60-71.

Why were Jesus' words considered "hard" by the crowd?

How do the Holy Spirit and the Word of Christ make a difference in our struggle to trust?

What was significant and helpful about Peter's question, "Lord, to whom shall we go?"

Assess your Life

What part of your walk with Christ do you currently find difficult to accept?

When God's Word confronts you, what is your instinctive response?

What personal struggles with faith are you hiding rather than confronting with honesty?

Apply the Truth

What practical steps can you take to trusting Jesus even when you don't understand what he's doing?

How can you intentionally seek the Holy Spirit when encountering difficult sayings in Scripture?

What realities about Jesus do you need to remember and rehearse when you're struggling to trust him?

Commit this Week

I will trust Jesus when his Word confronts me, even when I don't fully understand it.

"and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God."" (John 6:69, ESV)
