Grow your practice where primary care is needed.

Caledon is growing quickly, from approximately 90,000 residents today to a projected 300,000 by 2051. That growth is creating sustained demand for accessible primary care and opportunities for physicians to build long-term patient relationships.

Support to establish your practice.

Eligible family physicians may receive financial support to help offset eligible costs associated with establishing or relocating a full-time family medicine practice in Caledon.

Who the program supports

- Family physicians relocating from neighbouring municipalities and cities
- Recently graduated family medicine residents
- International medical graduates and internationally trained physicians who meet Ontario licensing requirements

How we help

- Navigate the municipal incentive and application process
- Explore communities, clinic environments and potential spaces
- Arrange community and clinic introductions
- Connect with local and regional health-care partners

Applicants must meet program requirements, including full-time practice in Caledon, accepting and rostering new patients, required roster levels and good standing with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Contact our team for full eligibility details.

Connected to care across the region.

Practising in Caledon means serving a distinct local community while staying connected to hospitals, primary care providers, community services and medical education across Peel Region.

Regional connections

- Hills of Headwaters Collaborative Ontario Health Team
- Headwaters Health Care Centre in Orangeville
- Toronto Metropolitan University School of Medicine in Brampton
- Community providers supporting mental health, palliative care, seniors, rehabilitation, social services and public health

Teaching and professional growth

Toronto Metropolitan University School of Medicine's regional network includes primary care training sites in Caledon and Bolton, creating potential opportunities for teaching, mentorship and team-based learning, subject to participating organizations' requirements.
Our recruitment team can help make introductions so you can learn more about local services, referral relationships and professional opportunities.

More room for life beyond the clinic.

Caledon combines the convenience of the Greater Toronto Area with the space and character of a smaller community.

Bolton

Bolton — Established services and urban convenience

Caledon's largest community and principal commercial centre, Bolton offers established neighbourhoods, shopping, recreation and convenient access to Highway 427 and Vaughan.

For Physicians

Bolton has Caledon's strongest concentration of health and allied health services, with established clinic environments, interprofessional connections and a substantial patient base. TMU School of Medicine identifies primary care training sites in Caledon and Bolton within its Peel regional network.

At a Glance

Approx. 30,000 residents | Public, Catholic, French-immersion and private school options | Arenas, trails, sports fields, golf and year-round recreation

Palgrave

Palgrave — Rural living and an active outdoor culture

A close-knit rural community on the Oak Ridges Moraine, Palgrave is surrounded by forest, trails and protected landscapes.

For Physicians

Palgrave and the surrounding rural area offer an opportunity to serve patients who may otherwise travel to larger centres for primary care.

At a Glance

Approx. 1,100 residents | Local and nearby school options | Albion Hills Conservation Park, cycling, golf, theatre and Caledon Equestrian Park, host of the 2015 Pan American Games equestrian events

Caledon East

Caledon East — Community connection at the centre of town

Caledon East combines a village atmosphere with municipal, recreation and everyday services. It is home to Town Hall and the Caledon East Community Complex, with trails, restaurants and family-oriented neighbourhoods nearby.

For Physicians

The community and surrounding rural areas present an opportunity to expand access to primary care in a central location. The recruitment team can help candidates understand current local needs and explore available practice settings.

At a Glance

Approx 5,000 residents and growing |Public, Catholic and private school options | Caledon Trailway runs through the community, sports facilities, parks, local dining and nearby golf for active daily routine

Caledon Village

Caledon Village — Rural character with regional access

Located near Highway 10 and Charleston Sideroad, Caledon Village offers a quieter rural suburb setting with convenient access to Orangeville, Brampton and the western GTA.

For Physicians

Residents in Caledon Village and nearby rural communities may travel outside the area for care, creating a meaningful opportunity to explore improved local access. Specific demand and practice opportunities should be confirmed through the recruitment process.

At a Glance

Approx. 2,000 residents | Public school and private school options | Rural scenery, local cafés, nearby trails, theatre and conservation lands offer small community living with larger centres close by

Mayfield West

Mayfield West — A fast-growing community taking shape

One of Caledon's newest and fastest-growing communities, Mayfield West offers newer neighborhoods and convenient access to Highway 410 , Brampton and the broader GTA.

For Physicians

Rapid residential growth is creating sustained demand for primary care and opportunities to build a patient roster alongside a growing community.

At a Glance

Approx. 10,000 residents and growing | Public, Catholic, private and French-immersion options | Newer parks, schools, recreation and retail services

Inglewood

Inglewood — Village character on the Caledon Trailway

A historic village along the Credit River, Inglewood is known for cycling, trails, local businesses and one of the area's few flight schools.

For Physicians

A community-focused practice could serve Inglewood and nearby rural residents who currently access many services in larger centres.

At a Glance

Approx. 1,500 residents | Local and nearby school options | Caledon Trailway, cafés, farm markets, orchards and conservation lands

Alton

Alton — Arts, education and four-season recreation

Set along the Credit River, Alton combines village character with arts, hospitality and recreation destinations.

For Physicians

A practice in or near Alton could serve the village and surrounding rural communities while remaining connected to services in Orangeville and elsewhere in Caledon.

At a Glance

Approx. 2,000 residents | Local public and private school options | Alton Mill Arts Centre, Millcroft Inn and Spa, and nearby TPC Toronto at Osprey Valley, host of the RBC Canadian Open

The Hill Academy combines academics with high-performance hockey and lacrosse programming for student athletes.

Belfountain

Belfountain — Escarpment living close to the city

A historic village on the Niagara Escarpment, Belfountain is surrounded by some of Caledon's best-known natural landscapes.

For Physicians

Belfountain and nearby rural communities offer the possibility of serving patients who travel to larger centres for primary care.

At a Glance

Approx. 2,000 residents | Local and nearby school options | Belfountain Conservation Area, Forks of the Credit Provincial Park, Bruce Trail, cafés and farm experiences

Well connected to the Greater Toronto Area

Caledon offers close-knit community living without giving up access to the Greater Toronto Area. Major routes connect to Brampton, Vaughan, Toronto and Toronto Pearson International Airport, while Orangeville and Headwaters Health Care Centre are accessible from northern and western Caledon.

Regional access

- Toronto Pearson International Airport — approximately 30 min
- Downtown Toronto — approximately one hour
- Nearby urban centres — Brampton, Vaughan and Orangeville
- Major routes — Highways 410 and 427, and the future 413

Professional sports, concerts, arts, shopping and international travel are within reach — with Caledon's trails, golf courses and conservation lands close to home.
