

Elder Candidate Bios – Class of 2029

Bob Hunsberger

Bob started attending BelPres in early 2021 and became a member a couple years later. He regularly attends Sunday Morning Bible Study, is a lay teacher for the class and is responsible for scheduling the lay teachers. He volunteers at Jubilee Reach in the Groceries for Family program and has been a teacher in their ESL program. He has also been a co-leader of an All In group. Bob had a 40 year business career and was the CEO for 3 different companies in the last half of his career. After retiring from business, he was an adjunct professor for 6 years at Seattle University in their MBA program. Bob and his wife Jeanette live in Bellevue and both enjoy playing golf.

Kristin Page

Kristin and her husband Andrew started attending BelPres in 2010. They became members in 2022. As a couple, they have taught Sunday School for several years. They have three children - Molly, Charlie, and Owen - who are actively involved in BelPres Kids and Student Ministries. Kristin has also served as a VBA leader and is currently a Care Minister. Over the years she has participated in Women at the Well, Mother's Fellowship, Eastside Academy birthday baking, and an All-In group. When she's not driving kids to swim practice, or cheering at soccer, basketball, and baseball games, Kristin teaches 5th grade in the Issaquah School District.

Martha Mudahogora

I am originally from Rwanda and married to Alexandre. We're blessed with two handsome boys. I moved here in 2022 from North Dakota and have been a member of BelPres/New Hope since then. I have been a deacon for three years and I serve as a women's leader at New Hope. I love caring for people and using all that I have to serve God with every opportunity I get.

Josh Wikel

Josh was born and raised here in Kirkland/Bellevue, growing up in a family of three boys with twin younger brothers. He came to Christ while attending Central Washington University, where he earned his degree in Financial Planning and Accounting as well as played linebacker on the football team. In 2020, he started attending BelPres and since then he has served on several short-term mission trips which were mainly to Greece where he served with Muslim refugees Athens and on the island of Lesbos and currently volunteers on Sunday nights as a 6th grade boys leader in the youth ministry. He currently works at Sound Capital as a Capital Advisor where he assists residential builders with construction financing. In his free time he enjoys hanging out with his friends/family, running, working out, playing sports, card games, and trying out new things.

Andrew Kim

Andrew Kim is a high school student at Lakeside School. He is the eldest of four siblings. He experiences the presence and love of God most deeply in the creation of the great outdoors where he hikes, runs, rows, and bikes. He loves to travel the world, but also likes looking for cool places around his Seattle hometown. He appreciates big books on any subject and is always looking for recommendations. He loves music and sang in BelPres youth choirs and currently plays the trombone. You can find him most Sundays at the 11am Sanctuary service in the balcony singing with his grandpa.
