

FUNEMPLOYED STUDIO

WHERE THE FUTURE OF WORK GETS BUILT (AND MADE FUN)

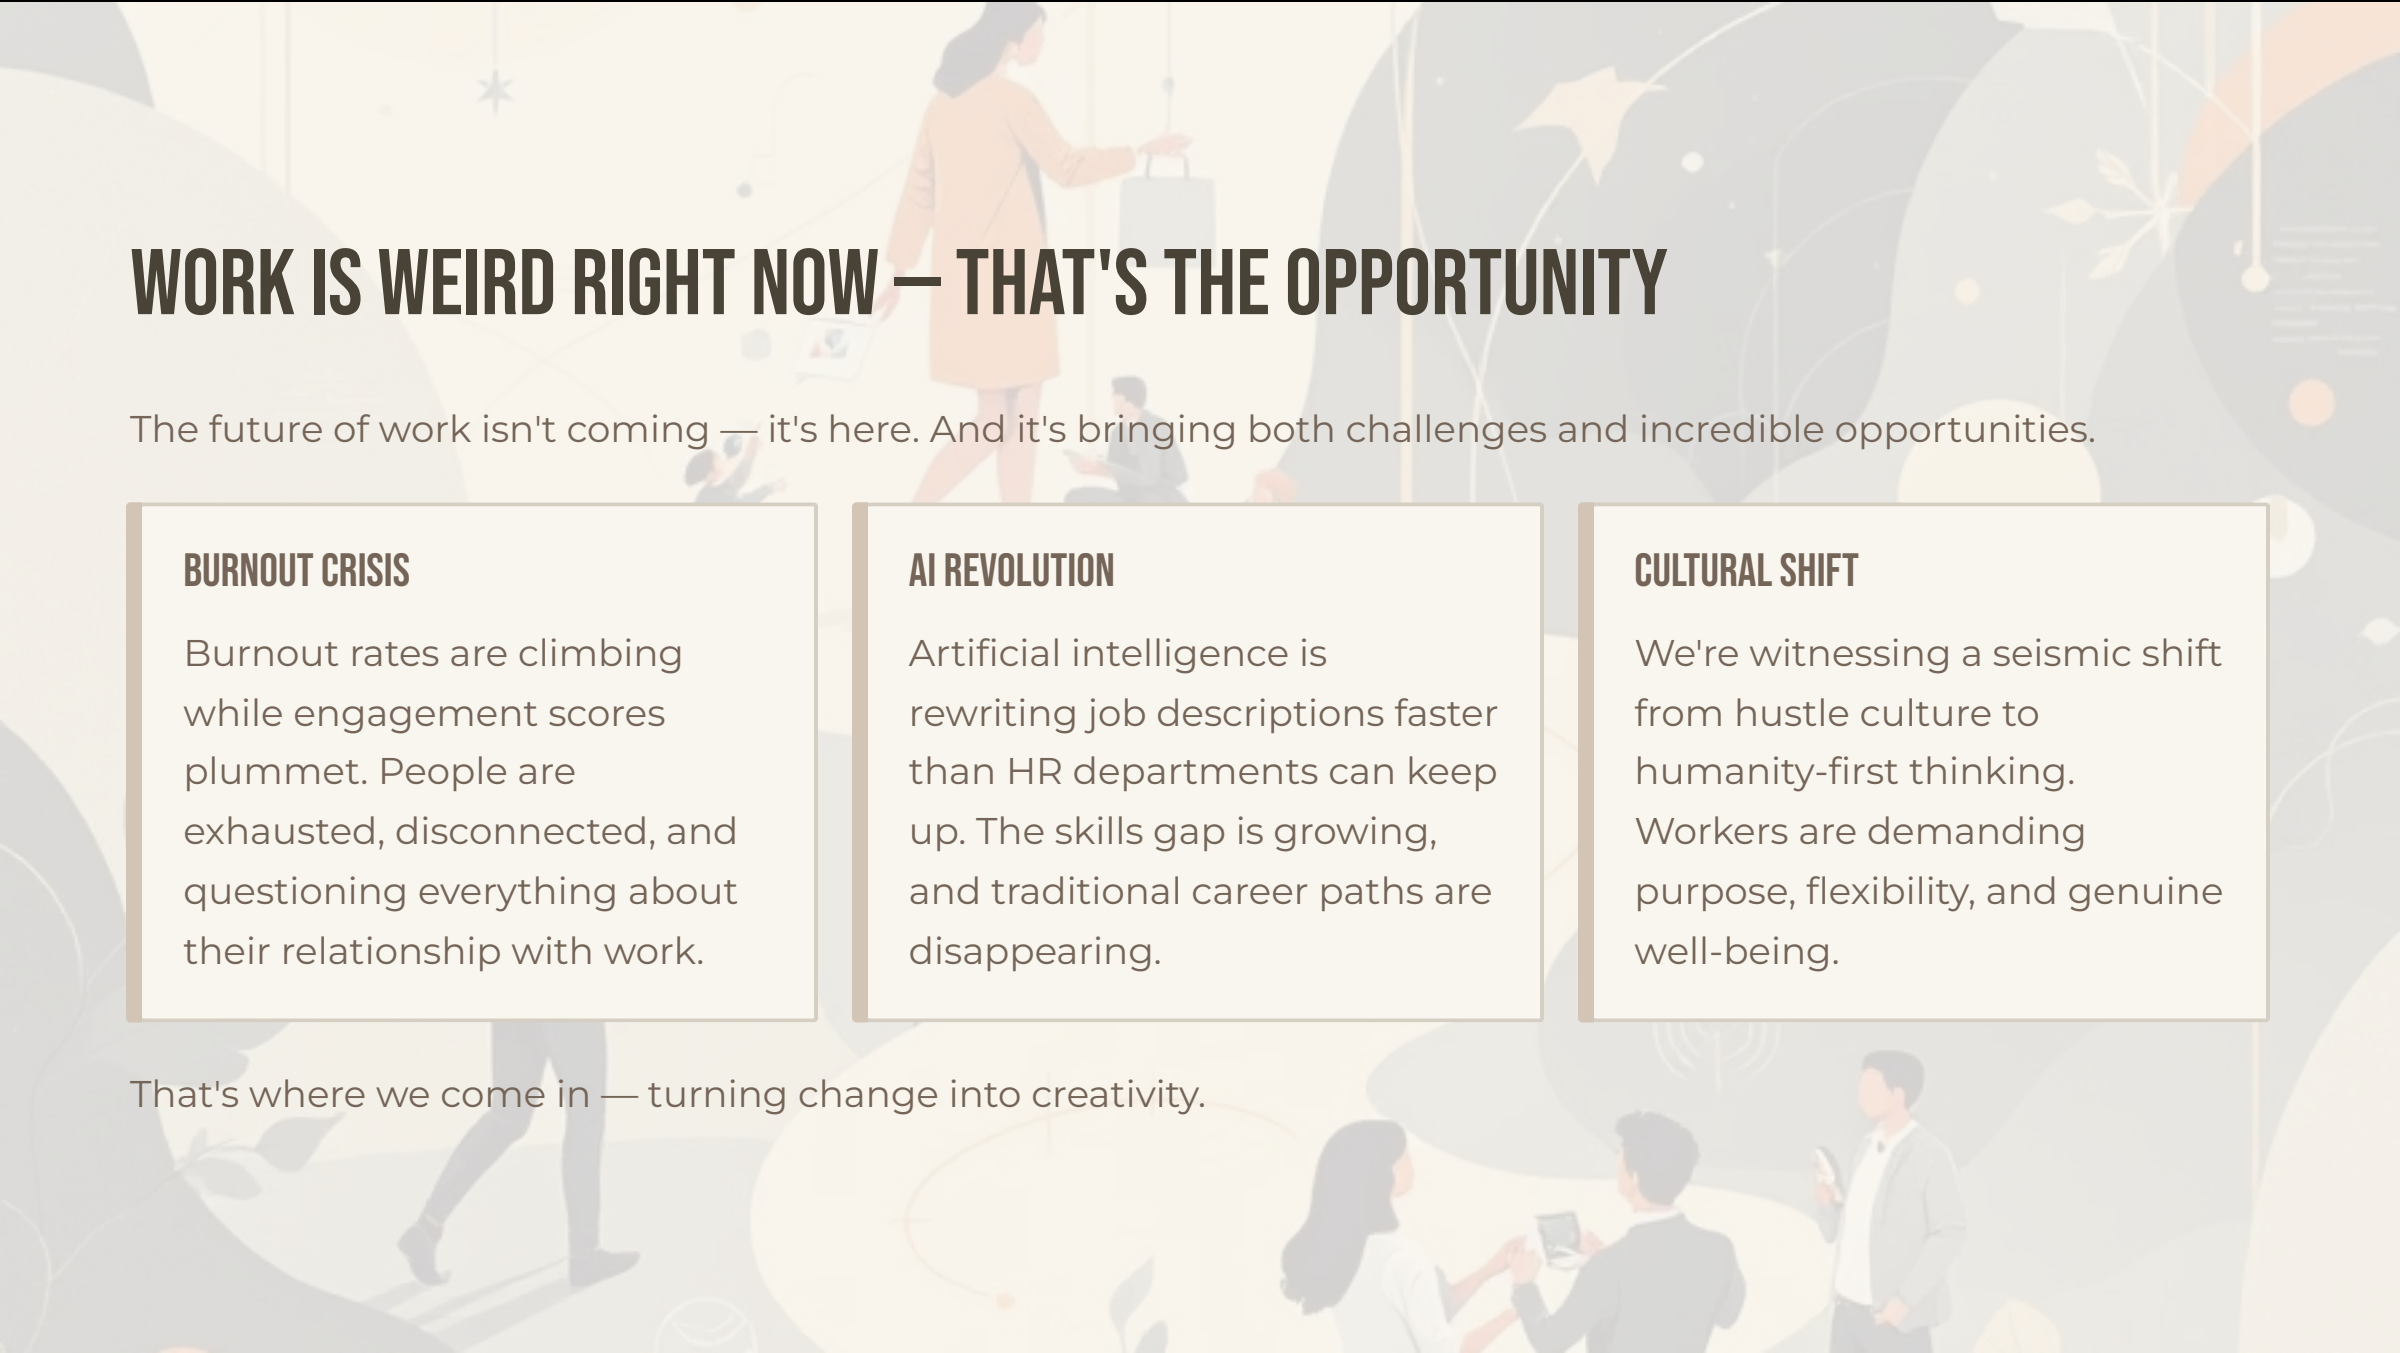

No buzzwords. No burnout. Just better ways to work.

RETHINKING WORK. REDEFINING WORTH. TOGETHER.

We believe work doesn't have to be a grind — or a gimmick.

Funemployed Studio blends creativity, strategy, and tech to build a healthier relationship with work. We're rewriting the rules for what professional life can look like when humanity meets innovation.

WORK IS WEIRD RIGHT NOW — THAT'S THE OPPORTUNITY

The future of work isn't coming — it's here. And it's bringing both challenges and incredible opportunities.

BURNOUT CRISIS

Burnout rates are climbing while engagement scores plummet. People are exhausted, disconnected, and questioning everything about their relationship with work.

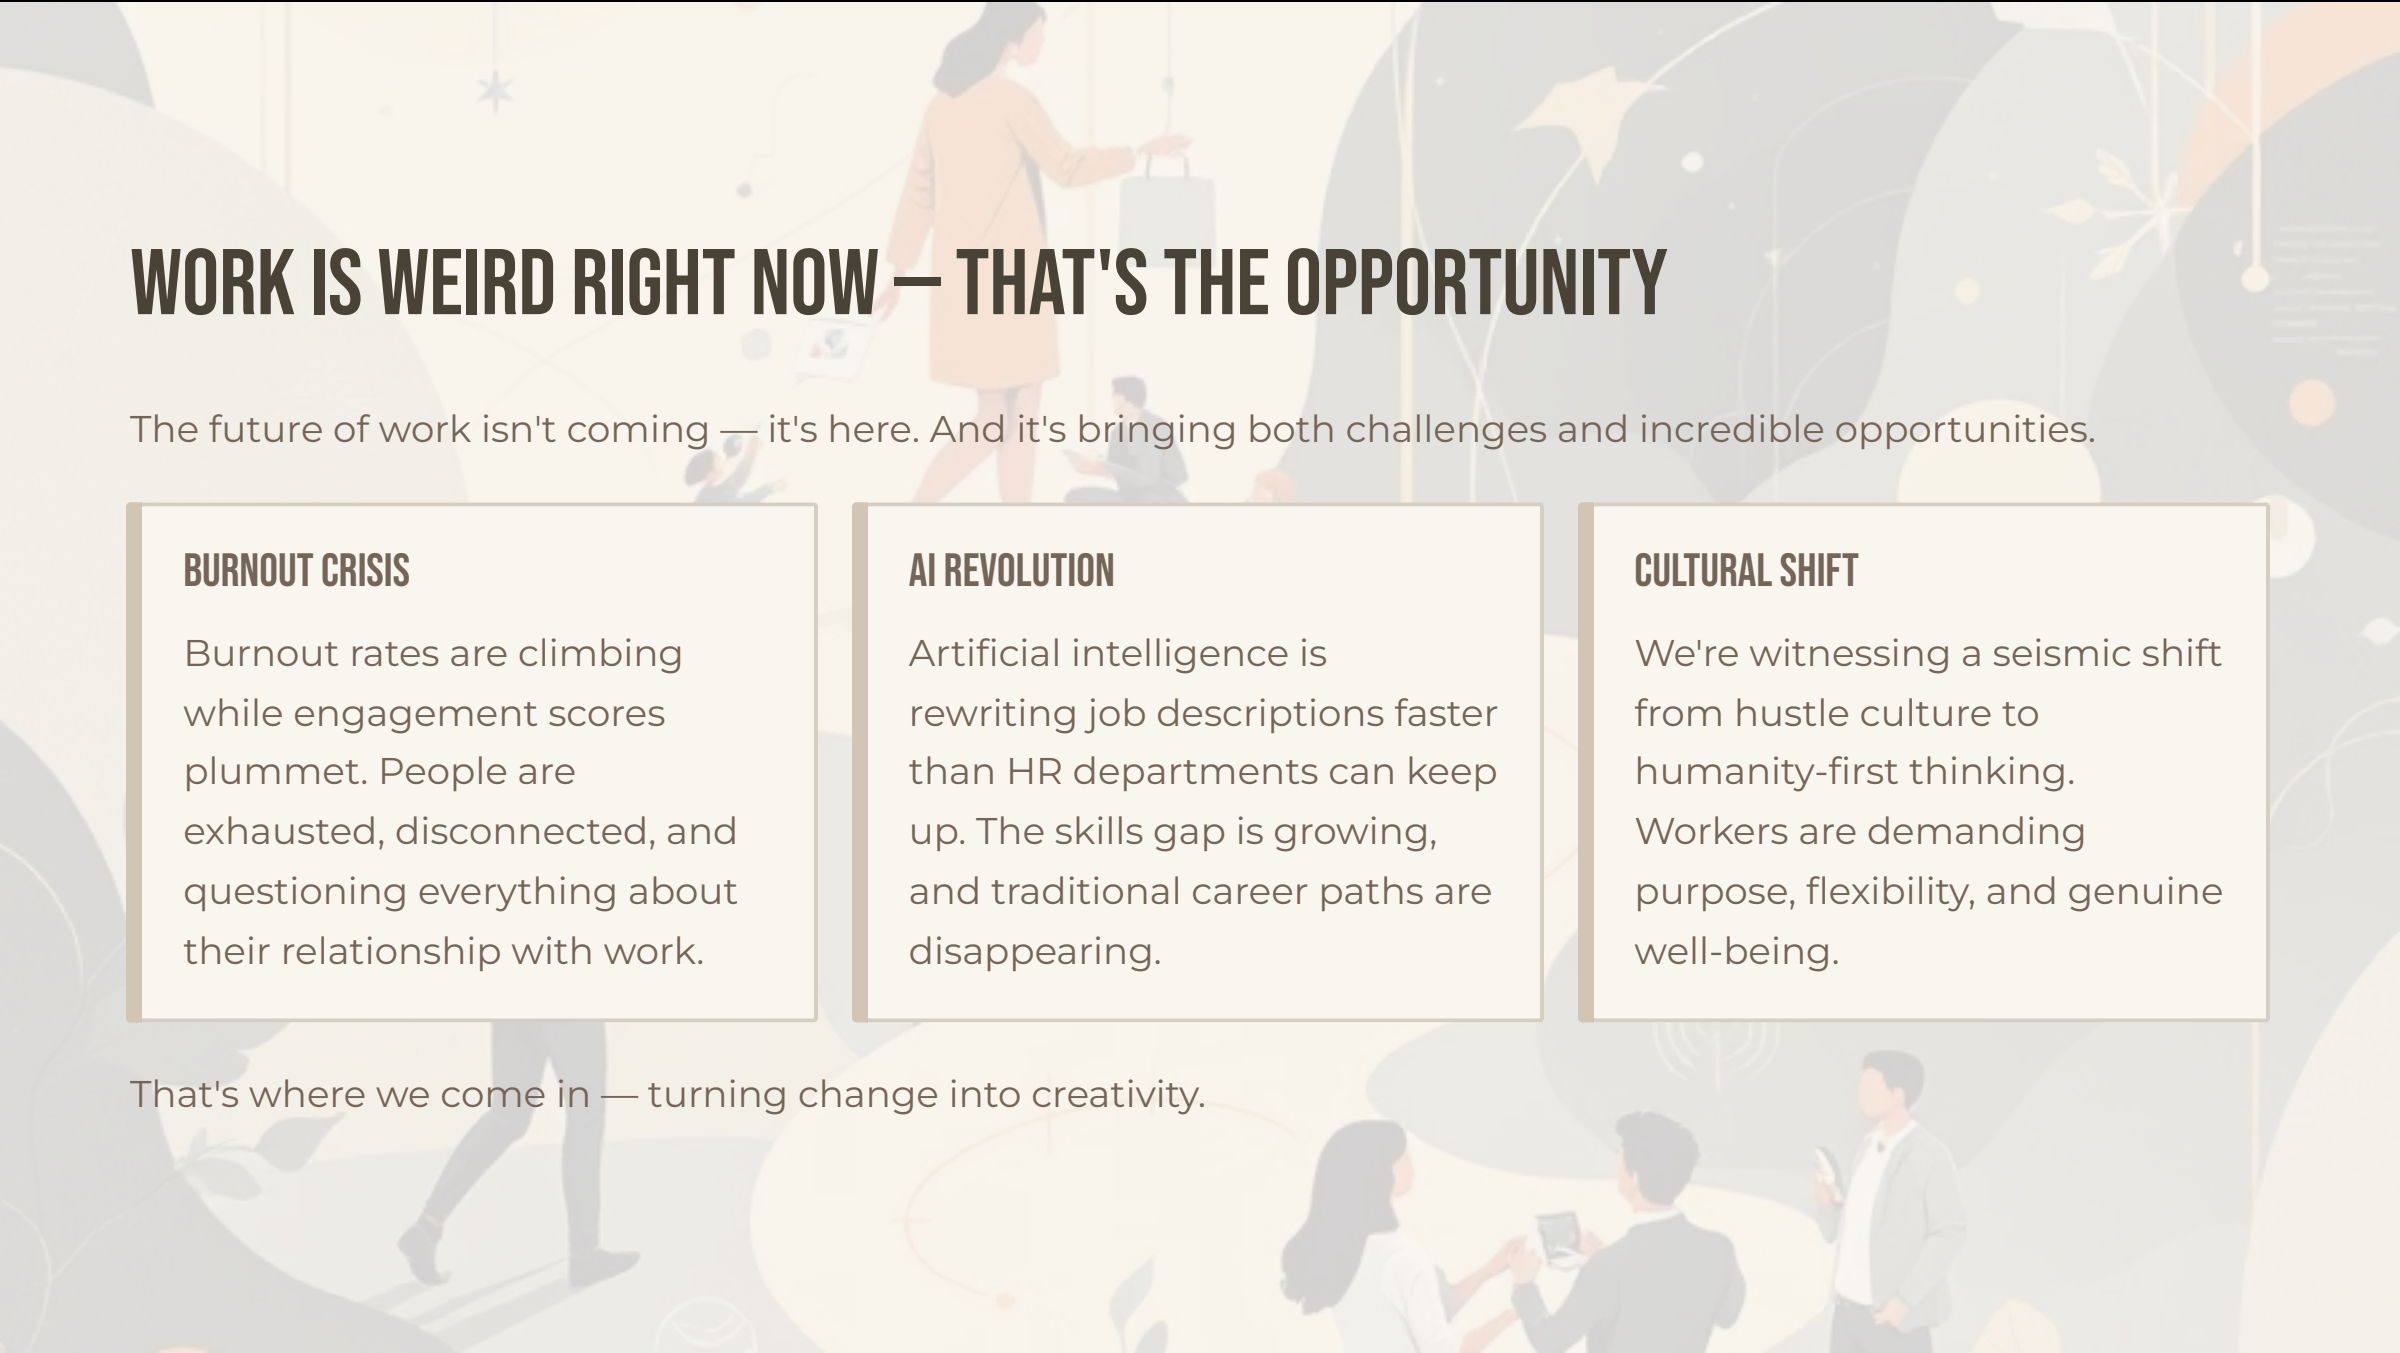

AI REVOLUTION

Artificial intelligence is rewriting job descriptions faster than HR departments can keep up. The skills gap is growing, and traditional career paths are disappearing.

CULTURAL SHIFT

We're witnessing a seismic shift from hustle culture to humanity-first thinking. Workers are demanding purpose, flexibility, and genuine well-being.

That's where we come in — turning change into creativity.

WHAT WE DO

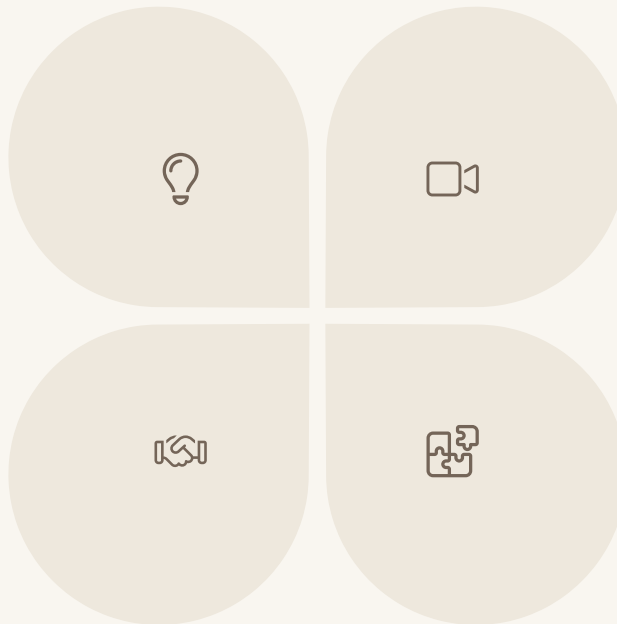

We don't consult — we create, prototype, and playtest the future of work.

High-energy sessions that reboot creativity, spark innovation, and transform workplace culture from the inside out.

From gig economy calculators to layoff survival cards, we create practical tools that make navigating modern work less scary and more empowering.

ACADEMY (BETA)

Bite-sized workshops and microlearning sessions designed for busy professionals. Learn new skills without the burnout.

CULTURE EXPERIMENTS

WHY US

WE'RE NOT ANOTHER CONSULTANCY — WE'RE CULTURAL ENGINEERS WITH BETTER PLAYLISTS

We blend design thinking with media strategy, combining the rigor of business consulting with the soul of a creative studio.

We measure success in impact, not just metrics — because numbers tell you what happened, but stories tell you why it matters.

The result? Work that feels more human, connected, and alive. Workplaces where people bring their whole selves and actually enjoy Monday mornings.
