SCRIPTURE THIS WEEK:

Philippians 2:19-30

19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. 20 For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. 21 For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.
22 But you know Timothy's proven worth, how as a son with a father he has served with me in the gospel. 23 I hope therefore to send him just as soon as I see how it will go with me, 24 and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself will come also.

25 I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need, 26 for he has been longing for you all and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill. 27 Indeed he was ill, near to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I am the more eager to send him, therefore, that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious. 29 So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and honor such men, 30 for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me.

Life Group Discussion Questions

Philippians 2:19-30

For the week of November 1, 2026

A Big Idea: Genuine faith produces a Christlike love that delights to place the interests of others before our own.

What Does It Say?

1. Why does Paul contrast Timothy's genuine concern for others with those who seek their own interests (vv. 19–21)?

2. What does Timothy's relationship with Paul reveal about the nature of Christian discipleship (v. 22)?

3. What qualities does Paul highlight in Epaphroditus, and why are they significant (vv. 25–28)?

4. Why does Paul call the church to honor people like Epaphroditus? What does this reveal about what God values (vv. 29–30)?

How Is It Expressed At RCC? (Growing in the heart and habits of faith)

1. What does the way we spend our time and energy reveal about what we genuinely treasure?

2. What keeps us from developing the kind of deep, intentional discipleship relationships Paul and Timothy shared?

3. How can we grow in seeing sacrifice for others as a joy rather than a burden?

4. Are we more impressed by giftedness and success or by humble, Christlike faithfulness? How can we grow in valuing what God values?
