

Chattanooga Area Food Bank
Food Waste Agreement
Form of Release

Chattanooga Area Food Bank is a non-profit organization which secures donations of edible food from corporations and local donors. This food is then distributed to those in need through a network of partner agencies. Occasionally, the Food Bank has food that is not fit for human consumption and cannot be distributed to hunger-relief organizations. Interested parties may be eligible to use such waste as animal feed provided that they meet the following criteria:

1. All items must only be used as animal feed.
2. All items must be used at the address listed below and not shared with other parties.
3. The individuals will agree to allow a Chattanooga Area Food Bank Representative to inspect premises and to review the end use of the non-edible foods. Notice may or may not be given.
4. The participants, in compliance of all state, federal, and city regulations, will neither sell, barter, transfer, the items taken from Chattanooga Area Food Bank for money, services, or goods.
5. The participant will comply with all regulations regarding the disposal of non-edible foods, cans, cardboards.
6. All coupons are considered invalid and will not be used in any promotion or redeemed at any store for any value regardless of expiration date.
7. Participants may be asked to remove all packaging as required by Chattanooga Area Food Bank.
8. The Foods are accepted in "as is" condition.
9. A strict "leave no trace" policy shall be followed.

Chattanooga Area Food Bank, Feeding America, and all original donors are released from any and all liability.

BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT YOU AFFIRM THAT THE ABOVE CONDITIONS WILL BE ABIDED BY.
