A seductive collision of angular refinement and soft finishes. Unapologetically modern, bold bezel settings in rich brushed 18k gold and platinum frame natural diamonds and rare gemstones in unexpected shapes and colours. Stacking rings, bangles and hoops with knife-edge silhouettes, radiate a distinctly rebellious spirit. This is power jewellery - architectural and striking.

Henry & Henry's most show-stopping collection. Limited pieces and unique gemstones sourced from across the globe, fused with the finest craftsmanship that creates a show-stopping impact. This is high jewellery for those who don't whisper—they make an entrance.

The first light of dawn, captured in colour and geometry. An extraordinary 155ct peach tourmaline anchors a sweeping collar of channel set baguette-cut diamonds totalling 36ct. Set in 18ct white and rose gold, the composition balances the gemstone's glowing warmth with the crisp brilliance of an architectural diamond silhouette.

Evoking Eos, the Greek goddess of dawn, the tourmaline recalls a sky awakening in shades of peach, copper and rose. A modern goddess collar, commanding in scale and alive with fire.

Tourmaline & Diamond Collar

POA

A 15.12ct honey coloured emerald-cut diamond paired with a 10.04ct pear-shaped cognac diamond in a striking expression of togetherness. Set in 18ct yellow gold, their contrasting colours and silhouettes bring a bold new perspective to the romantic Toi et Moi tradition. Two distinct characters, held in perfect balance.

Toi et Moi Diamond Ring

POA

You and me. A classic declaration of love, expressed with unmistakable presence. The clean, architectural lines of the emerald-cut diamond sit against the rich warmth and sweeping curve of its pear-shaped counterpart. Each stone retains its individuality, their differences giving the pairing its power.

A modern Cleopatra moment: cascading emeralds set in 18ct yellow and white gold, with a black rhodium finish. Crafted to drape with sculptural grace, this Armour D'Amour collar captures power and allure in equal measure, commanding presence with spell binding sensuality.

This collar started its journey with the spectacular discovery of an extraordinarily rare 34-carat Colombian emerald. H&H enlisted the skills of London's finest artisans to transform the stone into a striking modern choker with a unique closure that has to be seen to be believed.

A luminous blue sapphire sits at the heart of this one-of-a-kind ring, surrounded by a riot of diamonds and framed in cool 18ct white gold. Hand-finished with pastel blue enamel, its architectural form balances icy refinement with the rebellious spirit of Henry & Henry.

Punk Névé Sapphire Ring

POA

Handmade beauty with an edge. A serene blue sapphire is disrupted by a halo of diamonds that rise around it like shards of ice — precious, irregular and deliberately untamed. Pastel blue enamel brings unexpected calm to the 18ct white gold setting, creating a tension between polish and punk, delicacy and defiance.

An elongated octagonal 10.07ct fancy light brown diamond takes centre stage, flanked by two triangular diamonds. Set in polished 18ct white gold, the three stones create a commanding silhouette, balancing generous proportions with precise geometry. A classic trilogy, reimagined with the sculptural confidence of Henry & Henry.

Diamond Trilogy Ring

POA

Three stones, one powerful composition. Traditionally associated with past, present and future, the trilogy becomes an expression of enduring connection on a remarkable scale. The elongated centre diamond draws the eye along the finger, while its angular companions bring balance and definition. An open setting allows light to reveal the individual character of each stone, creating a ring whose strength lies in the interplay of proportion, geometry and brilliance.

A 42ct Royal Blue Ceylon sapphire is used as the centre gemstone for this magnificent ring. Crafted in 18k yellow gold and set with over 250 champagne diamonds.

Rathna Blue Sapphire Ring

POA

This 42ct oval shaped Ceylon sapphire - rich with provenance - was hand-selected during our most recent trip to Sri Lanka. From the storied gem fields of Ratnapura to the masterful setting of the Armour D'Amour collection, it embodies a heritage of beauty shaped over centuries. The luminous blue of Ceylon remains unmatched: a colour once coveted by kings, now recast in sculptural modernity.

Inspired by mythic tides, aquamarine and coral shimmer, set within sculpted platinum forms. The Thetis Collar embodies Armour D'Amour's confident sensuality – a statement of oceanic strength and serene luminosity, crafted for modern goddesses of impeccable poise.

Thetis Collar

POA

At its heart lies a 38.64 carat Santa Maria aquamarine, sourced from the legendary mines of Brazil - famed for producing stones of unparalleled purity and depth. Its vivid sea-blue hue radiates calm power, balanced by the warmth of hand-carved coral that glows with organic life. Together they create a composition of contrasts: ocean and ember, serenity and strength, captured in sculptural platinum. Each element is chosen for its provenance and spirit.
