

Blue Ridge Power Stakeholder FAQs

1. What was announced regarding Blue Ridge Power?

- Pine Gate is proceeding with the orderly wind-down of Blue Ridge Power.
- Though Blue Ridge Power is part of Pine Gate's Chapter 11 filings, it will not be part of the sales process.
- Blue Ridge Power is working to transition its active projects to each project's customer(s) and / or their designated replacement contractor, as permitted during the Chapter 11 proceedings.

2. What happens if I am a vendor to Blue Ridge Power and am owed amounts outstanding?

- U.S. law generally restricts an entity from remitting payment for goods received and services provided before the filing date without specific Court approval.
- If you provided goods or services before the filing date to Blue Ridge Power and have not been paid, you may need to file a Proof of Claim as part of the process.

3. How do I file a Proof of Claim?

- Information regarding how to file a claim is available on a website administered by the Company's claims agent, Omni Agent Solutions, at <https://omniagentsolutions.com/PGR>; by calling Omni representatives toll-free in the U.S. and Canada at +1 (888) 812-2572 or (747) 263-0193 for calls originating outside of the U.S. or Canada; or by emailing PGRIquiries@omniagnt.com.

4. What does this mean for Blue Ridge Power customers?

- Blue Ridge Power is continuing its orderly wind-down as it works to transition its active projects to each project's customer(s) and / or their designated replacement contractor, as permitted during the Chapter 11 proceedings.
- Additional information is available on a website administered by the Company's claims agent, Omni Agent Solutions, at <https://omniagentsolutions.com/PGR>; by calling Omni representatives toll-free in the U.S. and Canada at +1 (888) 812-2572 or (747) 263-0193 for calls originating outside of the U.S. or Canada; or by emailing PGRIquiries@omniagnt.com.