

THE ECHO PROJECT

CREATED BY
LEONARDO CECCHI

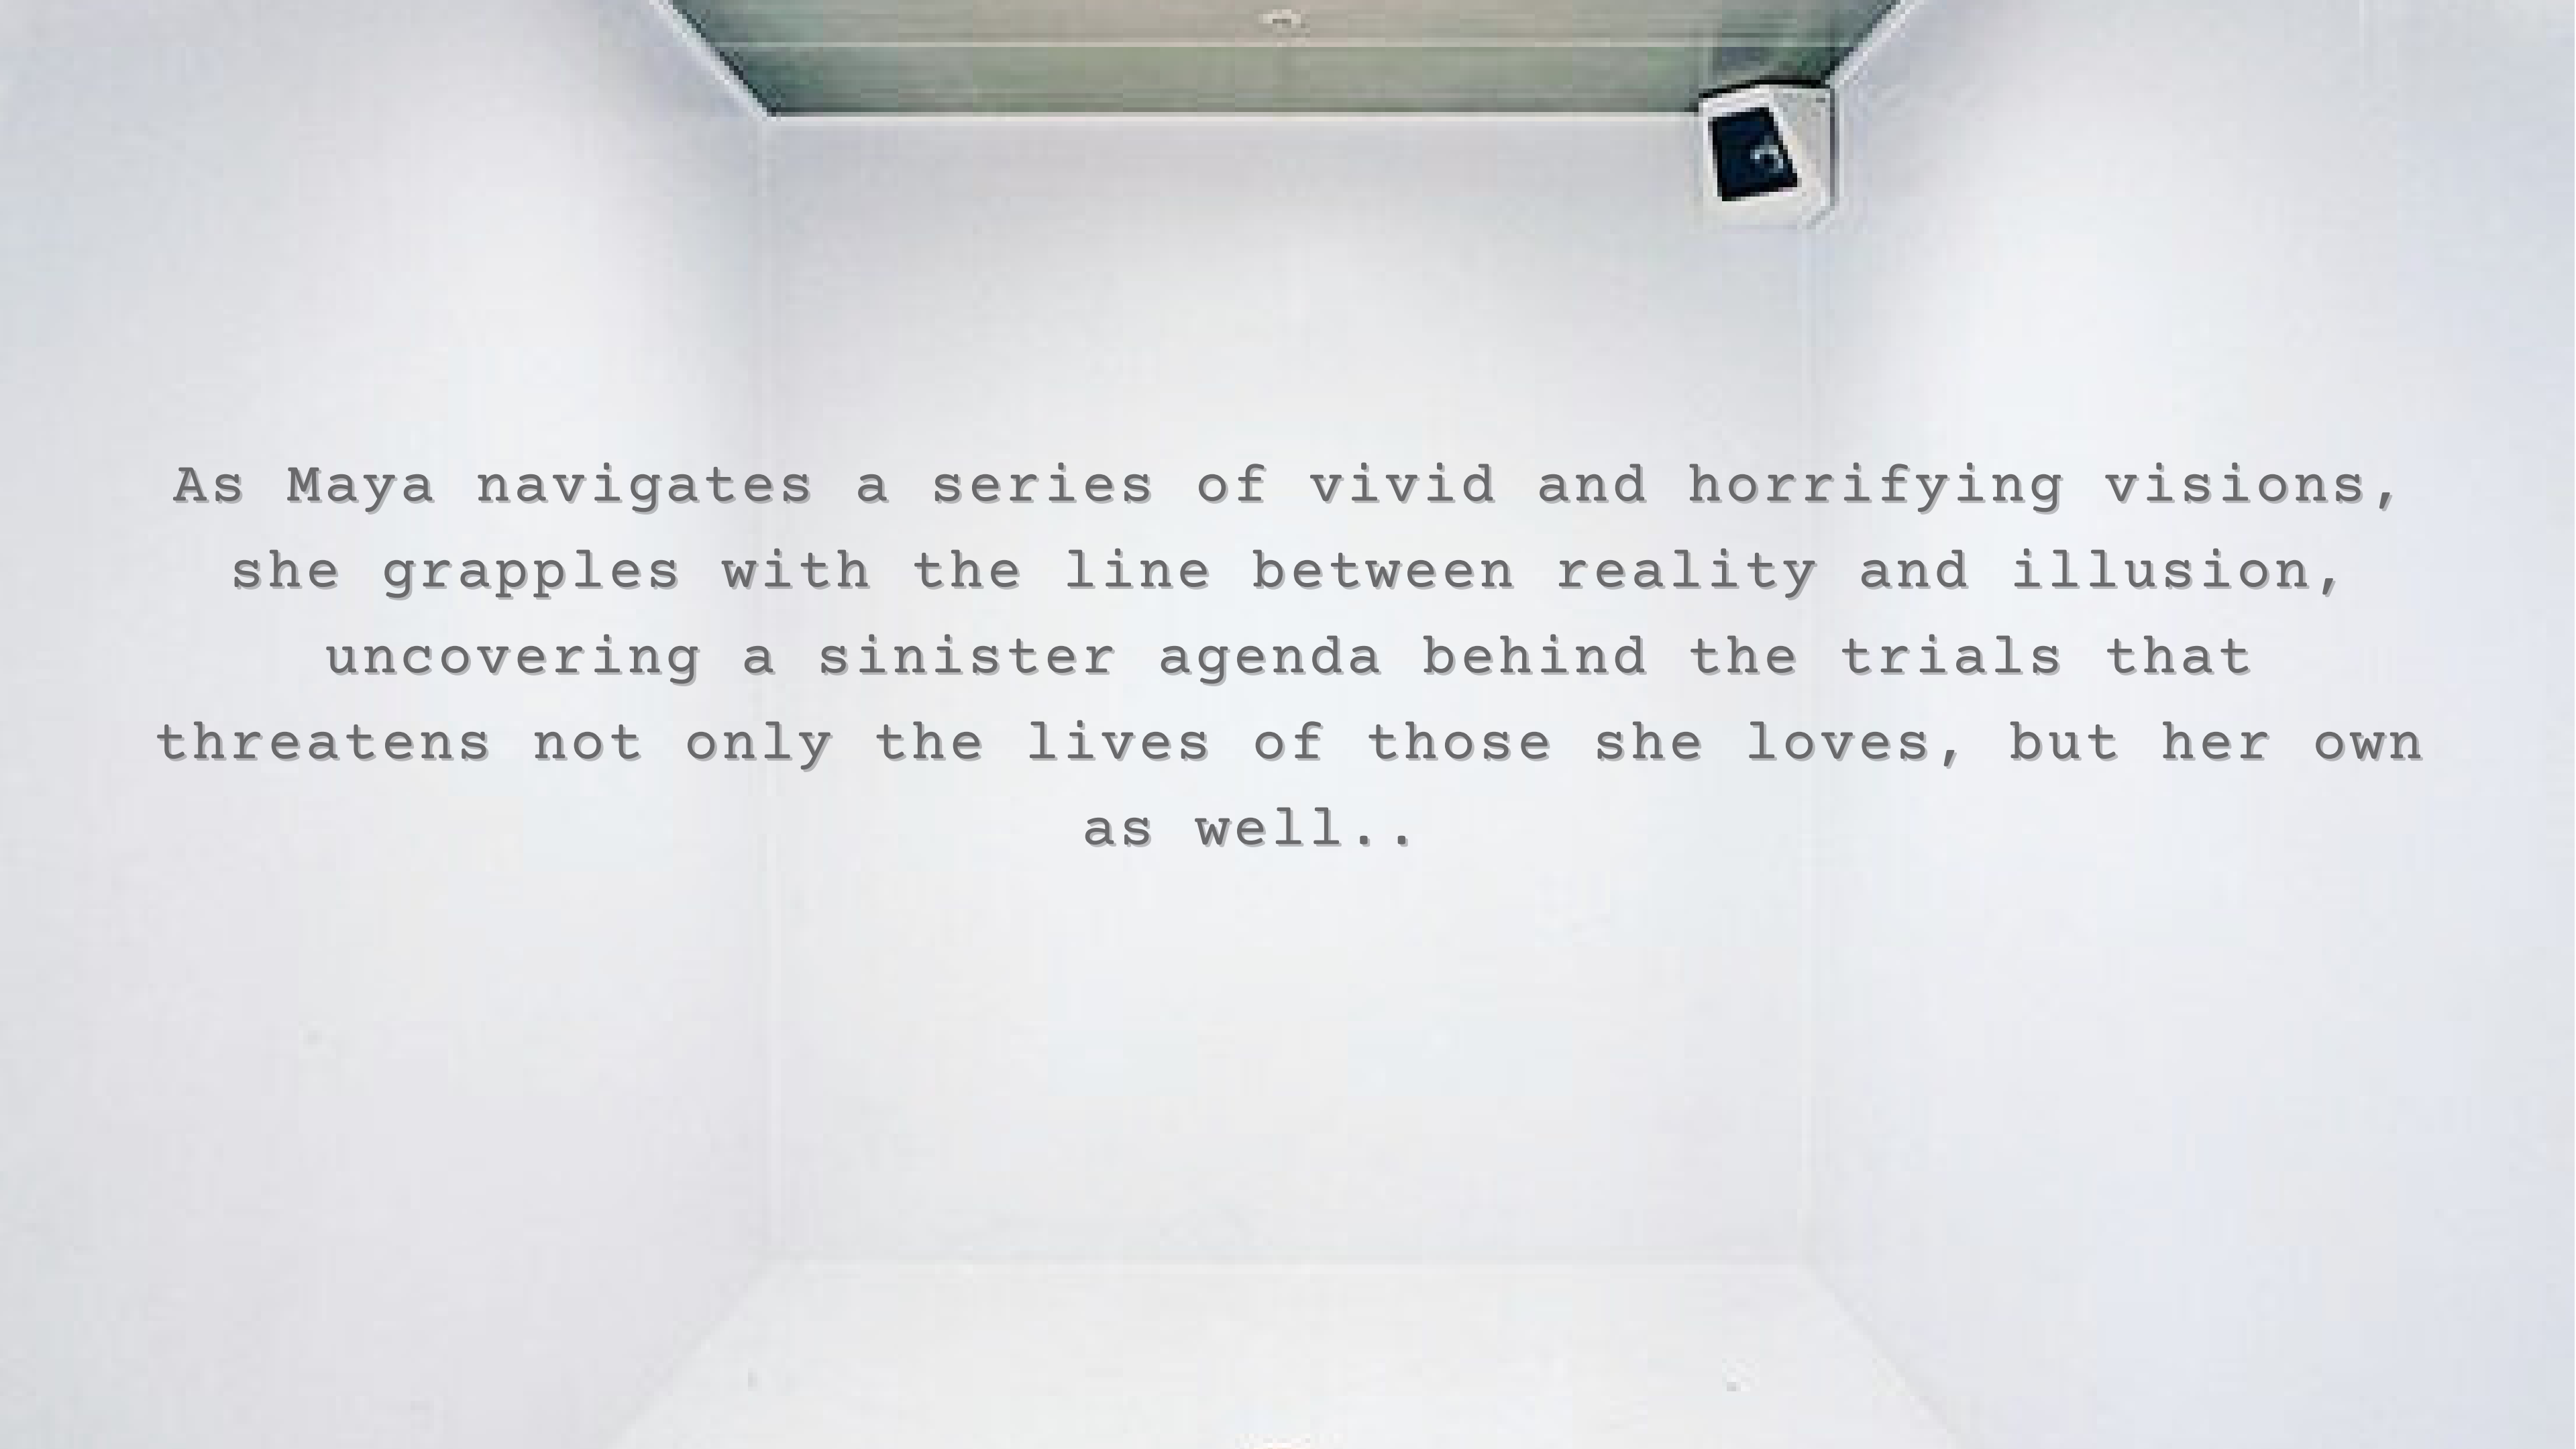

LOGLINE:

A woman taking part in a groundbreaking psychological experiment realizes that the boundaries between reality and imagination are dangerously blurred.

SYNOPSIS:

Maya, a grief-stricken woman desperate to raise the funds for adoption, participates in a groundbreaking experimental study that explores the power of human emotions. Led by the enigmatic Dr. Carter, the experiment uses cutting edge technology to amplify participants' daydreams, revealing an unsettling truth: their emotional experiences can shape reality itself.

A white, empty room with a small black square on the top right wall. The text is centered in the room.

As Maya navigates a series of vivid and horrifying visions,
she grapples with the line between reality and illusion, uncovering a sinister agenda behind the trials that threatens not only the lives of those she loves, but her own as well..

Caught in a web of manipulation and secrets, Maya must uncover the truth behind the project before the fragile boundary between her emotions and reality shatters completely, leaving her trapped in a nightmare she may never escape.
