I bring disruption to the table
—to widen perspectives and catalyze fresh angles.

I draw on experience from every corner of the ideation universe, always with the goal of sparking meaningful change. Because if nothing changes, nothing changes. I try to bring disruption to the table. To widen perspectives, and catalyze fresh angles.

EXPERIENCE

CEO whatt.io 2024 –2025

Malmö

As CEO for the Swedish operations, I led business development, strategic partnerships, and client engagement—driving adoption of whatt.io's product authentication and Digital Product Passport solutions.

CEO Infinite Acoustics 2023 –2025

Malmö

As CEO, I led the launch and growth of Infinite Acoustics, a hi-fi speaker brand transforming recycled car tires and ocean plastic into premium audio products. I oversaw business strategy, product development, and market positioning—turning sustainable innovation into high-performance sound.

CMO whatt.io 2022 –2025

Malmö

As Global Chief Marketing Officer, I led brand development, go-to-market strategy, and international expansion for whatt.io—a platform designed to authenticate products, automate spare-part ordering, and provide seamless access to Digital Product Passports.

CMO bimobject 2017 –2020

Los Angeles

As Global Chief Marketing Officer, I led the creation of a fully integrated marketing and sales hub for the U.S. and global markets. I developed strategies to align marketing, sales, and product initiatives, implemented data-driven campaigns, and maximized both push and pull triggers to accelerate lead generation and conversion.

CEO markenvard agency 2008 –2018

Malmö

I founded and led Markenvard Agency, a design and marketing consultancy delivering strategy, branding, and creative execution for clients across multiple sectors. I oversaw business development, creative direction, and project delivery—bridging business goals with impactful design and marketing solutions.

AD Electric Digital Agency 2006–2007

CPH

As Art Director, I developed visual concepts, branding assets, and campaign designs for clients across industries. I worked closely with creative teams and clients to translate ideas into compelling visuals that strengthened brand identity and market presence.

CD IconMediaLab 2001–2006

NYC+CPH

As Creative Director, I led digital strategy, concept development, and creative execution for international clients. I guided multidisciplinary teams to deliver innovative web solutions, ensuring design, functionality, and brand objectives worked seamlessly together.
