ESAM CELEBRATES 35TH ANNIVERSARY

On Saturday July 27th, the Empire State Aerosciences Museum celebrated its 35th Anniversary with a plethora of special attractions at the museum and in the community.

The day started with a special ESAM breakfast.

At 10 am ESAM President Peter Russo led the Opening Ceremony for the celebration. Dignitaries in attendance included US Congressman Paul Tonko who presented a proclamation honoring the event. Also attending were two members of the British parliament, Sarah Champion and David Linden.

Bob Secreti provided his excellent services as Master of Ceremonies and Announcer.

The 109 Airlift Wing provided a C-130 for static display.

Special activities included open cockpits, tours, the Adirondack Soaring Club, a bouncy bounce for kids and discounted admission.

A series of musical acts provided live music all day. The acts were the SUNY Choraleers, Martin Wakesburg playing acoustic folk rock, Erin Powers playing classic country rock, Kevin Wayne's rockabilly and Kurt Siegel playing pop folk rock.

Because the celebration coincided with the 50th Anniversary of the first moon landing, the museum's own Kevin Millington made a presentation on the Apollo 11 moon landing flight, complete with the museum's image of the Apollo 11 logo signed by Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin and Michael Collins.

Food was available courtesy of the Restoration Team.

Helicopter rides were available from Independent Helicopters.

Vintage aircraft were on display including Chinese and French trainers.

The documentary Return to Hardwick about the 93rd Bomb Group in World War II was shown at the Scotia Cinema on Saturday and Sunday (although the Sunday showing was cut short by a severe thunderstorm that knocked out power to the theater and many other buildings in the area). The film's Producer and Director Michael Sellers attended and provided insights about the film.

All in all it was a grand celebration. Thanks to the many volunteers and businesses who supported it. Support was provided by Ed Kosier, Hannaford, Russo Entertainment, Scotia Cinema and Wal-Mart.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Dear Fellow Members,

As a valued member of ESAM, I am asking for your help.

As you may know, we are working in partnership with Schenectady County to implement a long-term plan for a needed revitalization of the museum, a major part of which is rehabilitation of the Hangar Building. To this end, I have been working with Anthony J. Jasenski, Sr., Chair of the Schenectady County Legislature, and the County subsequently provided a $50,000 grant for preparation of plans intended to make this a reality. Through the grant, we have retained Re4orm Architects, a prominent local firm, which is now actively preparing these plans.

As the implementation of these plans will likely require considerable funding, your support is essential to communicate this need. I am asking that you communicate this need, in writing, to County Legislative Chairman, Anthony J. Jasenski, Sr. at 620 State Street, Schenectady, NY 12305. The larger the expression of support, the more likely we will realize a positive outcome. In this regard, I think at least 150 letters of support from our members are needed, hopefully many more.

I am thanking you in advance for your help. The future of our museum can be a bright and fruitful one with your help.

Sincerely,
Peter Russo, President

Dear _____:

September __, 2019

As a member of ESAM (Empire State Aerosciences Museum) I would like to voice my support for the future of the museum. Since the property is owned by the County, I think that it is their responsibility to endorse the program for improving the structure of the main hangar and the proposed renderings by James T. Pollard of Re4orm architecture.

I look forward to seeing this happen in the very near future.

Sincerely,

Peter Russo

THE VIETNAM HELICOPTER EXPERIENCE

On June 15, 2019 Jay Fuller made a presentation at the ESAM Fly-In Breakfast about his experiences as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam. Jay was attached to the 101st Airborne Division flying UH-1 Hueys. Hueys served many purposes in Vietnam including combat assault (Slicks), gunships and medevac. His unit's primary missions were air insertion and air resupply. His tour in Vietnam lasted from December 1967 through December 1968.

Initially he was stationed in the Mekong delta. Subsequently his unit was reassigned to the Hue area to the north. Operations were very different in the two areas. In the flat delta of southern South Vietnam he would often fly in large formations of helicopters. In the mountainous areas of northern South Vietnam he would often fly in trail positions with one helicopter at a time landing and taking off from the objective area.

During his presentation Jay covered the aircraft, missions, geography and living conditions. In regard to living conditions he was grateful for having the luxury of a tent over his head at his helicopter bases. He was normally on duty from 7 am to 7 pm seven days a week. Most missions were an hour or more in duration. His maximum number of landings in a day during his tour was 17 landings.

Thanks to Jay for his excellent presentation.

SUMMER AVIATION CAMP A HUGE SUCCESS

by Kevin Millington

The Museum's Summer Aviation Camp, a 5-day-long program held from August 19-23, was once again a HUGE success, our finest hour! In the five years we've conducted this education program, it has grown steadily, and this year's was our largest ever – 42 students enjoyed a week of aviation classes and experiences. Classes were provided on the history of aviation, the physics, or forces, of flight, and in the preparation of flight plans, and much more – we enjoyed presentations from Larry McArthur on Naval Aviation and flight gear and from Yves Nollet on gliders and soaring, visited Stratton Air Base and boarded an LC-130 Hercules, AND each student got an actual flight, compliments of volunteers John Baldosaro and Joel Glickman.

Rachel Rourke once again developed and oversaw the program, and she did her usual wonderful job. The program is undertaken in partnership with Schenectady County Community College's Office of Work Force Development and Community Education, and many thanks to Maria Kotary of that office. Partnerships are so important to our success, and SCCC is certainly among our best partners.

The program could not have been undertaken without our great volunteers – John Baldosaro, Lynn Chevalier, Gary Davis, Michael Dreibelbis, Gary Gershon, Joel Glickman, Rachelle Meerschaert, Yves Nollet, and John Panoski, as well as the Young Ambassadors, many of whom previously were students, including Sean Claesgens, Marisa Dreibelbis, James Emmick, Isaiah Gershon, Ashlyn Hunter, George Hunter, Robert Hunter, and Luke Hunter. Thanks also to Joyce Newkirk and Pat Barrot for all their help, to Peter Hunter, who again generously provided a bus and transported folks to and from Stratton Air Base, to Stewart's, who once again provided funds to support the program, and of course to my colleagues on the Board of Trustees, who could not be more supportive.

We concluded the week on Friday with a "graduation" party for the students, their families, and volunteers, which included a visit from Senator Jim Tedisco, who recognized the students and ESAM, and who continues to be such a strong supporter of ESAM, as well as remarks from President Peter Russo.

I was so happy and proud to be affiliated with such a wonderful program.

MAKING WAY FOR THE CONCORDE

On August 24th the Glasair that has adorned the front lawn of the museum for many years came down to make way for the Concorde! As Restoration Chair Rich Bievenue commented at the time, "We've removed the Glasair from the post in front of the museum. We're ready to break ground on the Concorde foundation this week. Things are gonna get real now."

(Above) Celebrating the removal of the Glasair are the museum volunteers who made it happen. From left to right: Charlie Wiessand, Fred Bloomstein, Alfonzo DiBlasio, Jeff Smith, Dave Tripp, Karl Groves, Michael Sweeney, Peter Bergendahl, Joyce Newkirk and John Panoski. On the ladder, Gary Davis.

And in fact, ground was broken for the Concorde foundation on August 27th!

OUR VOLUNTEERS

FLIPPING THE WING

Restoration Team work continues on readying the Concorde for display. Recent focus has been on preparing the “model” for painting. Having finished prep work on one side of a wing, on August 6th the team flipped the wing to facilitate prep work on the other side. Pictured below in front of the wing are Restoration Team members Mike Sweeney, Peter Bergendahl, Bill Maetta, Karl Groves, Fred Bloomstein, Fred Fink, Dave Tripp, Gary Davis, Alfonzo DiBlasio and Tom Urquhart.

MODELS FOR KIDS

If you come to ESAM's monthly Fly-In Breakfasts you may have noticed a small table holding some basic airplane models and a sign saying they are free for kids.

Volunteer Bob Vore makes this happen. As part of his role on the museum's Curatorial & Acquisitions Committee, Bob culls through the multitude of models that are donated to the museum, recommending that the better ones be placed into the museum's inventory, identifying some for sale in the Gift Shop and choosing some that are appropriate for kids as toys. He often makes repairs to the one's designated for the kids and makes sure they are placed on the give-away table at the breakfasts. Thanks, Bob, for this unique service to the museum.

April 16, 2019 email

Dear Kevin and ESAM team,

Thank you so much for welcoming our Rise High students last Saturday. It was a great visit that nicely complemented our module on the Science of Flight, and they certainly had a lot of fun accessing the airplanes and simulator. I know the kids, and we adults, learned a lot while also having fun.

We have posted about our visit on Facebook where we also tagged ESAM... The same summary and pictures will get posted on our website soon (updates underway): <http://rise-high.org/blog-news/>

Thank you again, and we hope to be able to work together again in the future.

Best,

Dear Kevin,

Thank you so much for the WONDERFUL job with the kids from my son's school in Harlem. I know they enjoyed it & they asked a lot of questions! You had a lot of patience. I know Henry, their teacher, and I appreciated all you did to make their visit one I'm sure they'll remember!

Thank you,
Ronnie Quinn
