

SUMMER IMMERSION

TAFSIR OF SURAH AL-TUR

Mufti Abdul Wahab Waheed

SESSION 5

Enjoyment in Jannah Without Consequence

- In Jannah (Paradise), enjoyment is complete and without fear of negative consequences, unlike in dunya (this world), where even permissible pleasures can be tainted by anxiety or guilt. The phrase "hani'an" means to enjoy without worry or harm.

كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

[They will be told], "Eat and drink in satisfaction for what you used to do." (52:19)

- Deeds are required for Jannah, but entry is ultimately by Allah's mercy. Allah mentions deeds to show appreciation for human effort, not because deeds alone are sufficient.

Reclining in Bliss: Equality and Unity

- In Jannah, no one feels "behind" or inferior; all are equal and united.
- The arrangement in rows (masfufah) is similar to the rows in prayer (saf/صف), symbolizing equality and unity among believers.
- Allah removes all negative feelings from hearts

مُتَّكِئِينَ عَلَى سُرُرٍ مَّصْفُوفَةٍ وَزَوَّجْنَاهُمْ بِحُورٍ عِينٍ

They will be reclining on thrones lined up, and We will marry them to fair women with large, [beautiful] eyes. (52:20)

Companionship in Jannah

- **حُورٍ عِينٍ (hoor 'een):** Special companions in Jannah, not human, created for Paradise.
- The description addresses human desires in a pure, elevated way.
- For women and those unmarried in dunya, scholars mention Allah will provide companionship as desired, including the company of the righteous, Prophets, or Maryam (Mary), peace be upon her.
- The descriptions of Jannah are general and meant to appeal to universal human desires for companionship, beauty, and love. No one will feel lonely or deprived.

Family Reunification and Elevation

- Believers will be reunited with their families in Jannah, even if their ranks differ.
- The higher-ranked family member's status is not diminished; instead, the others are elevated.
- This applies to parents, children, spouses, and extended family, provided all have faith (iman).
- Key Vocabulary
  - ذُرِّيَّتُهُمْ (dhurriyyatuhum): Their descendants.
  - الْحَقْنَا (alhaqna): We will join/reunite.
  - مَا أَلَاتْنَاهُمْ (ma alatnahum):** We will not decrease (from their reward).
- The greatest joy in Jannah is being with loved ones. The reward system in the Hereafter is such that righteous children can elevate their parents' ranks, and vice versa, through Allah's mercy.

The Value of Good Deeds and Dhikr

- The only "regret" in Jannah is for moments in dunya not spent in remembrance of Allah (dhikr).
- Even a single extra "Subhanallah" or "Alhamdulillah" can elevate one's rank in Jannah.

The Blessing and Test of Children

- The loss of children is described as the greatest worldly test (ثَمَرَات, thamarat – fruits, interpreted as children).
- Parents who lose children and respond with patience and praise (الحمد لله, Alhamdulillah) are promised a special palace in Jannah called "Bayt al-Hamd" (House of Praise).

The Stages of the Soul

- 1. Pre-worldly existence (souls together).
- 2. Life in dunya (soul and body united).
- 3. Barzakh (soul only, after death).
- 4. Jannah (soul and body reunited, families together).

Summary of Main Concepts

- Jannah is a place of complete enjoyment, free from fear, jealousy, or regret.
- Equality and unity are core features of the Jannah experience, symbolized by reclining in rows.
- All negative emotions are removed from the hearts of the people of Jannah.
- Companionship is a fundamental human need, fulfilled perfectly in Jannah.
- Families are reunited and elevated together in Paradise, with no one's rank diminished.
- The souls of believers remain connected after death, and visiting graves is a means of maintaining that connection.
- Good deeds, especially dhikr, have immense value and can elevate one's rank in the Hereafter.
- Losing a child is the greatest test, but patience and gratitude are rewarded with unique honor in Jannah.
- The journey of the soul is continuous, and the ultimate reunion is in Jannah with loved ones.

Practical Takeaways

- Strive for good deeds and dhikr; even small acts can have immense impact in the Hereafter.
- Invest in the faith and righteousness of your children; their good can elevate you in Jannah.
- Cherish family and unity; these are among the greatest blessings in both dunya and akhirah.
- Respond to trials, especially the loss of loved ones, with patience and gratitude for unique rewards.
- Remember that Allah's mercy is vast, and the descriptions of Jannah are meant to encourage and comfort.
