ABOUT OUR JV PARTNERS

NuvoLogic Consulting is an SBA certified Women-Owned Small Business (WOSB) delivering data-driven solutions to federal and commercial clients since 2013. Their expertise in financial analysis, data science, and risk management enables agencies to make informed, strategic decisions impacting areas such as loan guarantee and direct loan programs, data modernization efforts, and regulatory impacts on programs and policies.

NuvoLogic identifies and mitigates fraud, waste, and abuse through rigorous data analytics and internal control assessments, helping agencies protect program integrity while optimizing resource allocation. Their process improvement methodologies streamline agency operations and enhance mission delivery, enabling federal clients to achieve greater efficiency and measurable cost savings.
