Sample Bequest Language

The following language may be of help to you when drawing up a will that meets your needs. The information provided is for your reference only. You are recommended to seek professional advice for the preparation of your will.

Direct Gift | A gift of specific dollar amount or fixed percentage that can be used where the need is greatest.

“I hereby give, devise, and bequeath to 84000: Translating Words of the Buddha (insert dollar amount) OR (insert percentage amount) of my estate to be used for its unrestricted use and purpose.”

Residual Gift | Leaves any remainder after all other bequests have been paid.

“I hereby give, devise, and bequeath to the 84000: Translating the Words of the Buddha, all or (insert percentage amount) percent of the residue of my estate to be used for its unrestricted use and purpose.”

Contingency Gift | Takes effect only if a primary intention can't be met.

“If any of the beneficiaries named in this will should pass away before becoming entitled to receive their distributive share of my estate, I direct my trustee (or executor or the equivalent) to pay or transfer the share to which such beneficiary would otherwise be entitled, to 84000: Translating the Words of the Buddha for its unrestricted use and purpose.”

Beneficiary Gifts Through Retirement Plans and Bank Accounts | Naming 84000 as a beneficiary is a simple, effective way to support our work without updating your will.

- Contact the relevant institution for a change-of-beneficiary form, though forms are often available online for download.
- Indicate what percentage of the account you would like to contribute to 84000, and list us as:
