CHIN CHIN CLUB

Nestled in the basement of Rozengracht 133, Chin Chin Club is the rascal kid on the block that brings life to the neighbourhood.

Chin Chin Club is our interpretation of a social clubhouse. A total concept that houses a restaurant, a cocktail bar and a nightclub. Multiple mini concepts brought together in a multi-roomed venue with multiple experiences under one roof. This is also reflected in the name, when translated in Chinese it says “千千級”, which means ‘thousand, thousand layers’.

Our promise is to offer our guests a carefree night out. Start off in our Asian inspired restaurant and smoothly flow into our daily changing (club) night programme with astonishing entertainment. At Chin Chin Club you don’t have to move from venue to venue (while the group becomes slimmer) to experience an incredible night out. ‘Chin Chin’ is essentially the most cheerful sound we wish to hear in our club, the sound of laughter and clinking glasses.

Chin Chin Club has hosted several incredible events and shows. The events team will work through every possible detail to create your perfect event. The restaurant can accommodate up to 400 guests for a walking dinner and 150 guests for a seated dinner. The nightclub can host up to 725 guests. Our courtyard with its lush interior and intimate lighting, make the perfect backdrop for every special occasion.

MANAGERS

The club and restaurant managers are the venue's key holders. They've gained lots of experience by having worked years in the hospitality and event industry and by fulfilling a wide range of functions within this industry. They not only bring a full bag of expertise to manage a (small or large) team, but also spread an uplifting vibe that enhances the guest & experience. Together with the team they can creatively and easily solve problems to smooth sail any event.

EXECUTIVE CHEF

The man behind all the magic that comes from the kitchen is Said Cheddad. Born and raised in Amsterdam, Said has worked and held (head) chef functions in various well-known French orientated restaurants in Amsterdam. Said always had a strong interest for the Asian culture and its cuisine, and it was time to combine all his experience and knowledge to create its own style, a place where he takes the taste, flavors from the East, combined with techniques and knowledge of the West.

SPACES

Chin Chin Club's interior is the brainchild of Lisa Boissevain; a lady with an exceptional vision and fashionable taste to match. Everyone who has been to one of the venues she designed; iNN, Mesiba to name a few – will undoubtedly agree that Lisa is a master in creating venues that are elegant, time-less, but always with a sense of playfulness – a pleasure for the eye and the (Insta)gram. Tucked away on the Rozengracht, you will find the unassuming entrance of Chin Chin Club, with only a neon lucky cat waving at you. But once you enter the basement, you will be greeted by an army of golden lucky cats. This is when the journey starts. A long-stretched red tinted venue with in the heart a gigantic cherry blossom tree. The idea was to create a non-stereotypical themed venue, but a subtle and welcoming venue with an elegant entourage.

COCKTAIL BAR

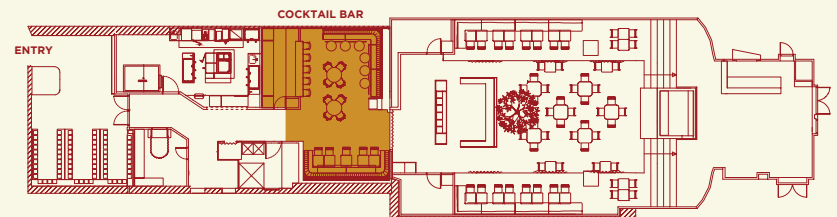

Once you have entered the venue, you will be led towards the cozy, elegant cocktail bar. Here you can take a look at our long cocktail menu and enjoy all time classics or premium beer, and the most exotic wines. During restaurant hours, this bar can be reserved for a cozy gathering, birthday drinks or just any occasion that is worth celebrating.
