MOORING LOCATION

D'Oyly Carte Island

A unique two-acre private island on the River Thames near Weybridge is the perfect location to moor your boat for total tranquillity and enjoyment.

D'Oyly Carte Island is an enchanting Victorian retreat steeped in theatrical history and timeless elegance. Once home to the legendary impresario behind Gilbert & Sullivan, the island's 13-bedroom Eyot House is being lovingly restored to its former grandeur.

Whether you're dreaming of hosting unforgettable events, soaking in riverside serenity, or becoming part of a legacy of creativity and culture, D'Oyly Carte Island offers something truly unique: an escape that feels both magical and meaningful.

For full location facilities visit:

There are two heated toilets and a very pretty area on the island dedicated for berthholders, providing a relaxing place to enjoy a drink or a friendly chat with other island boat owners.

Grade II listed Victorian arts and crafts villa which has recently been renovated. Surrounded by beautiful gardens, meandering pathways, flowers and trees, the island is full of wildlife and is stunning throughout the seasons.

This idyllic island is further enhanced with a rich history of music and hospitality dating back to 1890 when Gilbert & Sullivan regularly visited the island to play intimate concerts for their host, Richard D'Oyly Carte and their guests (D'Oyly Carte Music).
