HARVEY NICHOLS

1/

Billecart-Salmon Brut Réserve NV

£52

This family-owned Champagne house is certainly one of my favourites. Flavoursome and impeccably balanced in the mouth, the citrus and orchard notes are integrated with suggestions of bread and honey.

2/

Domaines Ott - By Ott Blanc 2021

£25

This stunning southern French white is a crisp and refreshing blend of Sémillon and Vermentino. The wine has notes of lemon and acacia flower.

3/

Gainzta - Txakolina Rosé

£22.95

This spritzy, low alcohol wine has a smooth and fresh character with flavours of cranberry and wild strawberry. The Lazkano family only make a limited number of bottles, owing to the single hectare plot and the 50-year-old vines.

4/

Bodegas Zuleta - La Goya Manzanilla (half-bottle)

£9.50

No summer is complete without a good dry sherry alongside some al-fresco nibbles. This delightful, fortified white is bone-dry with a delicious saline kick to the finish.

5/

Louis Jadot - Marsannay Clos du Roy 2020

£39.00

It's always a pleasure to enjoy good Pinot Noir in the warmer months. This bottle is from the historic burgundy producer Louis Jadot who has been making fine wines for over 60 years. Expect black cherry notes and hints of peony.

6/

Alvaro palacios - Camins del Priorat 2021

£27.50

Alvaro is one of the most respected winemakers in Spain. It bursts with red cherry and blueberry flavours and is a must-try for any Spanish red wine fan.
