

Dress your Christmas table

to impress

If you're hosting Christmas this year, show the family just how it's done with a festive table styled with care. These luxury table accessories will make your Christmas dinner the most luxurious one yet!

Large resting stag wine cooler

Annabel James

Nothing says Christmas like a stag holding up your alcohol! This magnificent beast deserves center stage on your table, with space for a bottle of wine in ice balancing on its antlers, or you could make a Christmas punch!

£450

www.annabeljames.co.uk

Golden mistletoe placemat

Braided Rug Company

Bring a little romance to your table with these golden mistletoe placemats. The striking design makes the perfect resting place for your heavily-laden dinner plate. And they have matching coasters and runners too, if you want to make gold your theme this year.

£49

www.braided-rug.co.uk

Dress your Christmas table
to impress

Silver plated food container

Thomas Øvlsen for Assembly Line

This new line of silver-plated items for Assembly Line is less about function and more about art and protest. Made up of recycled materials, this food tray, part of the TeDeen FumVe range, is a stylish addition to your Christmas table and will certainly be a talking point.

£410

www.assembly-line.org

Dress your Christmas table
to impress

Six luxury homemade forest crackers

Cox and Cox

Nobody ever wants the cheap plastic gifts that come out of Christmas crackers, but these luxury designs from Cox and Cox will delight everyone. As well as the compulsory hat and joke in each one, you'll find gifts people can actually use, like seedballs, sweetpea seeds, wooden plant markers and metal plant-shaped paper clips.

£50

www.coxandcox.co.uk

Artus table light

Tom Raffield

This stylish centrepiece will beautifully illuminate your dining table. With an exposed bulb on a rustic sustainably sourced birchwood base, it creates some incredible shadows that will add to your festive entertainment.

£225

www.tomraffield.com

Noel candle holder

Oka

The most festive way to display your table candles, the Noel candle holder is a delightful addition to your dinner set-up. This antique bronze-plated metal holder features glass beads dripping off the branches, beautifully catching the candle light.

£95

www.oka.com

Christmas garland with lights

Idyll Home

Add this festive garland to the centre of your table and bring some natural elegance to your dinner style. The lights set the mood and you can easily arrange it to fit around the rest of your decor. And when you've finished eating you can wrap it around a banister. A versatile piece indeed!

£65

www.idyllhome.co.uk

The flutes

Mustard Made

These unusual champagne flutes will add a little edge to your Christmas toast. Created in collaboration with FAZEK as part of a limited-edition collection, they include bright stems and a geometrical shape that ensures your celebrations are remembered. These hand-blown glasses are even dishwasher-safe!

£99

uk.mustardmade.com

Classically fruity Christmas pudding

Harvey Nichols

It isn't a proper Christmas table unless someone's set fire to a fancy Christmas pudding! And they don't get fancier than the ones from Harvey Nichols! Bursting with sultanas, glace cherries, almonds and pecans and topped with port, brandy and mixed spice, it is the perfect finale to your Christmas feast.

£12.50

www.harveynichols.com

