

LUCARELLI

SPOTLIGHT REVIEW

Address: 117 Wharfside St, Birmingham B1 1RF

Date of visit: 15 January 2025

Time: 19:00

For this issue of Swealthy we were delighted to review the renowned Italian restaurant, Lucarelli at The Mailbox, Birmingham.

On arrival we were warmly greeted by the restaurant manager Pasquale and seated in the beautiful conservatory under the iconic cherry blossom trees overlooking wonderful views of Gas Street Basin.

Our attentive and knowledgeable waiter brought our food and drink menu and left us to peruse the array of mouthwatering dishes. We were struggling a little as everything sounded so enticing but luckily for us, Pasquale was on hand to help us choose and we were extremely impressed with his recommendations:

TO START

- Olive Marinade
- Bruschetta al Pomodoro
- Pesce in Coperta

FOR MAIN

- Zuppa di Pesce Alla Napoletana
- Gamberone e Capesante

FOR MAIN

- Truffle and Parmesan Italian Fries
- Zucchine Fritte
- Insalata Caprese

TO FINISH

- Tartufo Amalfi
- Tiramisu
- Coffee

We shared our starters as both of us had major food envy at the other's dish so thought that was the best solution. Every dish was packed full of flavour. The portion sizes were abundant and the presentation beautiful.

Lucarelli also have a sister restaurant in West Bromwich that you will have seen on our social channels, was recently named UK's Number 1 restaurant on the The Fork's Top 100 Most-Loved Restaurants List for 2024. We will certainly be dining there too in the near future!

Overall, we were delighted with our visit to Lucarelli, the welcome, attention to detail and willingness to please made for a memorable evening. The interior and ambience was perfect for a relaxing and enjoyable experience. In our opinion it really is a 'must visit' - you certainly won't be disappointed.

Fine dining

Gastro

Swealthy tried & tested
(within last 6 months)

Swealthy loves:
food menu

Swealthy loves:
drink menu

One to watch!

