Sporting excellence across Edgbaston Village

A CALTHORPE COMMUNITY

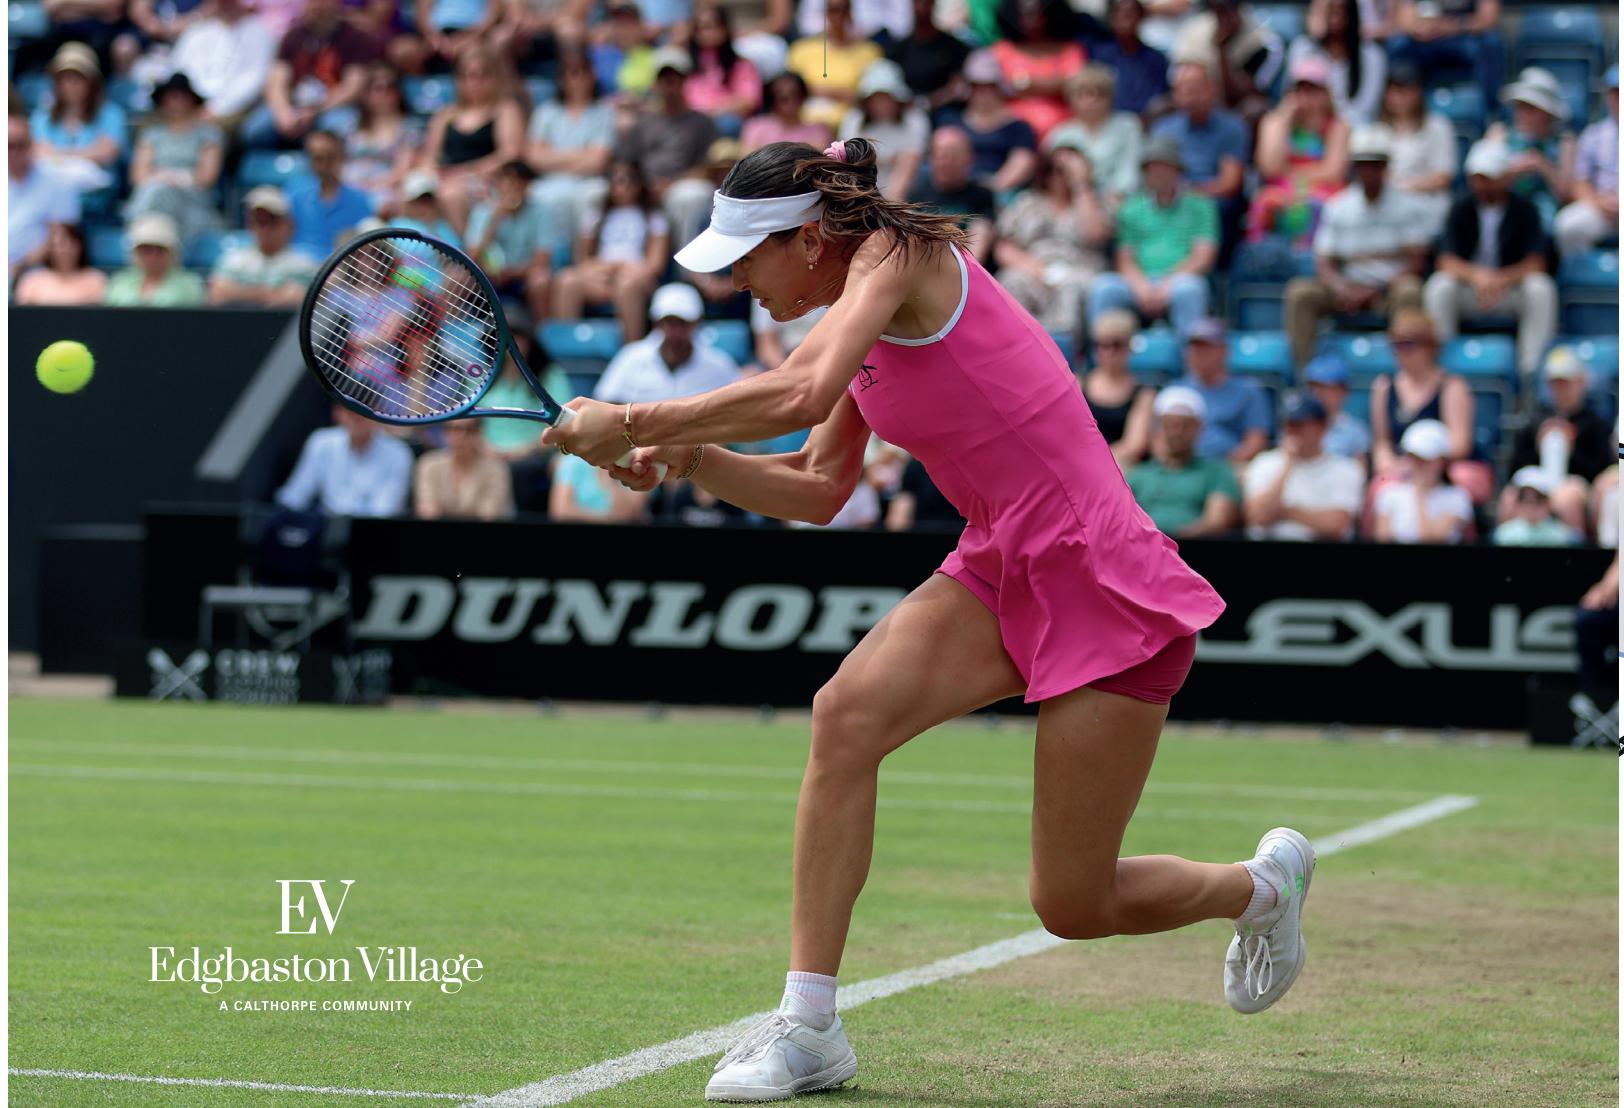

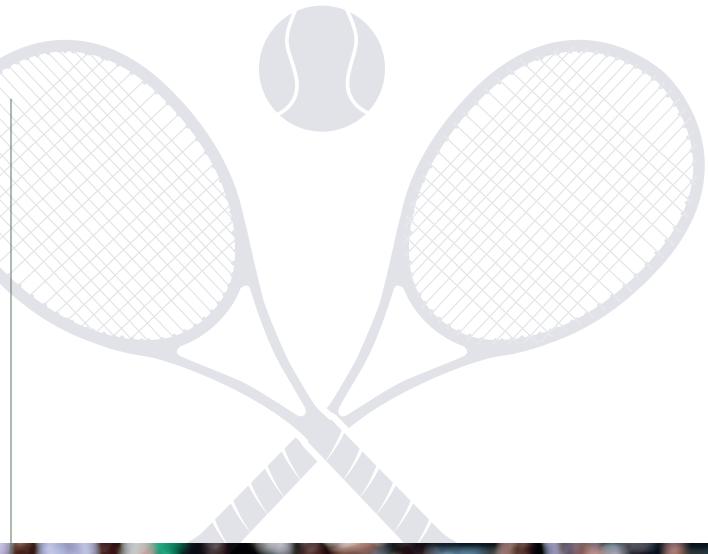

Edgbaston is home to some of Birmingham's most prestigious sporting venues, from the lush greens of Edgbaston Golf Club to the iconic courts of Edgbaston Priory, it has long been a hub for world-class sports. Whether you're enjoying a match at Edgbaston Stadium, perfecting your swing at the Golf Academy, or joining in the friendly atmosphere at Central Edgbaston Bowling Club, there's something for everyone. This Summer, Edgbaston comes alive with events and activities for sports lovers of all ages and abilities, making it a destination where every match is a celebration of community and excellence.

Edgbaston Priory Club

Sir Harrys Road, B15 2UZ

Celebrating its 150th anniversary, Edgbaston Priory Club stands as a cornerstone of Birmingham's sporting heritage, with roots tracing back to the birth of lawn tennis on Ampton Road, Edgbaston. Over the decades, the Club has nurtured local talent, welcomed sporting legends, and built a vibrant community around racquet sports and lifestyle. For those seeking a blend of history and elite sport, Edgbaston Priory remains the heart of racquet sports in the city.

This June, it hosts the Lexus Birmingham Open featuring both men's and women's tennis for the first time, marking a new chapter in its world-class legacy and setting the stage for the road to Wimbledon.

Central Edgbaston Bowling Club

44A Harborne Road, B15 3HE

Central Edgbaston Bowling Club is a cherished local venue where tradition meets community spirit. Located in the heart of Edgbaston, this Club offers a welcoming space for bowlers of all abilities. With a beautifully maintained green and a supportive atmosphere, it's the ideal place to enjoy a friendly match or connect with fellow enthusiasts. For over a century, this club has been a staple of Edgbaston's sporting culture, fostering connections and passion for the game.

Edgbaston Croquet Club

Richmond Hill Road, B15 3RP

Tucked away on Richmond Hill Road, Edgbaston Croquet Club has been part of the area's sporting landscape since 1915, when it moved from its original home at the Plough & Harrow Hotel. With roots dating back to 1907, it's one of the Midlands' most historic croquet clubs. Over the years, it has welcomed everyone from local enthusiasts to international champions, hosted major events, and weathered everything from world wars to floods. Today, the Club remains a tranquil haven for this timeless sport offering immaculate lawns, a friendly welcome, and a rich tradition of strategy, precision, and community spirit.

Edgbaston Golf Club

25 Church Road, B15 3TB

Edgbaston Golf Club offers a unique combination of tradition and modernity, with a stunning course that suits golfers of all levels. For beginners, the Edgbaston Golf Academy's Learn to Play in 10 Hours course is the perfect start, offering six hours of expert coaching. With all equipment provided and personalised lessons, beginners can focus on building skills in a serene environment. Whether you're here for a relaxing round or a competitive game, Edgbaston Golf Club provides an exceptional golfing experience.

Edgbaston Archery & Lawn Tennis Society

14A Westbourne Road, B15 3TR

The Edgbaston Archery & Lawn Tennis Society, one of Birmingham's oldest clubs, offers a refined space for lawn tennis. Established in 1856, the club continues to attract local talent and national champions alike. With facilities set against Edgbaston's peaceful greenery, it provides a welcoming environment for both seasoned athletes and beginners. Whether perfecting your serve or honing your skills, this historic club remains a true gem of Edgbaston's sporting landscape.

Or find your zen at Yoga Sanctuary

A new chapter at Simpsons
Elegant dining, reimagined

Simpsons has unveiled a new three-course set lunch menu at £49.50, offering a more accessible way to experience one of Birmingham's most iconic dining destinations. With two refined options for each course, the menu showcases seasonal flavours and signature creativity - think Isle of Wight tomatoes with basil seed and tomato sorbet, or sea bream with crispy potato and smoked eel cream.

Set against the backdrop of the newly refurbished terrace, this latest addition invites guests to enjoy Michelin-starred dining in a more relaxed and open setting. It's everything you love about Simpsons, expertly crafted food, genuine warmth, and timeless style, now with a fresh sense of ease and possibility.
