

Opportunity for Understanding

Even countries with a lower faithful population think accurate portrayal of religion is crucial to foster global understanding.

Views about Impact of Representations of Faith/Religion in Movies and TV

- It is crucial to portray faith/religion accurately to promote understanding and respect for diverse beliefs concerning faith/religion.
- Accurate portrayals of faith/religion in movies and TV are important, but ultimately do not impact how people view faith/interact with others with different beliefs.
- Writers, producers, and directors should have artistic freedom to portray faith/religion as they see fit, even if it includes negative perspectives on a faith/religion.
- I don't have a strong opinion
