

Professional Development For Midwives

American College of Nurse Midwives (ACNM)

Midwives thrive in community and professional development is strongest when rooted in connection, collaboration, and shared learning. Whether you're newly entering the field or deepening your practice, Oklahoma offers pathways to grow, lead, and advocate through the Oklahoma Affiliate of the American College of Nurse Midwives (ACNM).

ACNM connects Certified Nurse Midwives (CNMs) and Certified Midwives (CMs) across the state. Member engage in:

- Continuing education and clinical updates
- Legislature advocacy for full scope practice
- Networking and mentorship opportunities
- Annual meetings and statewide initiatives

→ Get Involved:

👉 ACNM Oklahoma Affiliate to join, attend events, or connect with leadership.

Midwives Society of Oklahoma (MSO)

The Midwives Society of Oklahoma is a grassroots, inclusive organization supporting midwives of all credentials, including CPMs, CNMs, and student midwives, The Society fosters:

- Peer support and interdisciplinary dialogue
- Public education and outreach
- Policy advocacy for licensure and access
- Community based birth equity efforts

→ Get Involved:

Follow Midwives Society of Oklahoma for updates, membership, and upcoming gatherings.

👉 facebook.com/OklahomaMidwives

👉 midwivessocietyofoklahoma@gmail.com