The current membership stands at 55 with 33 Members of Parliament and 22 Peers.

The APPG launched its new inquiry in September 20026 on the Online Harms affecting Men and Boys. The meetings with expert speakers are based on understanding the harms that target men and boys because they are men and boys, and what the impact of these are on them. Policy recommendations will then be made. The four evidence sessions are focused on (i) Body image/ Looksmaxxing (ii) Gambling/Cryptocurrency (iii) Misogyny Content (iv) Pornography/Sextortion. A final report will be produced in Spring 2027.

In addition, the APPG has joined other APPGs in holding joint sessions on gambling and the manosphere. It also held a session for the Boys' Education Commission so that commission could hear directly from Parliamentarians.

Across the year, there has also been a wide range of Parliamentary activities that the APPG and its members have led or taken part in with respect to men and boys' issues. Most notably, the annual International Men's Day debate (Commons), Boys' Education (Commons), and, Fathers and Positive Male Role Models (Commons).
