MEET THE CANDIDATES

IT'S TIME FOR NEW LEADERSHIP AT THE NEW YORK CITY DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CARPENTERS

ANTHONY VINCENT

- 26-Year, 2nd Generation Floor Coverer with deep union roots going back to his great-grandmothers — one a seamstress union lineswoman and the other an operating engineer at Bluebell Hospital.
- Union Legacy Family – Father served on the E-Board for Local 2287 and later as a business rep for IKROC, inspiring Anthony's commitment to union involvement.
- Natural Leader from Day One – Began as an apprentice, quickly rose to Lead Carpenter, Foreman, and NYDCC Shop Steward.
- Proven Union Officer – Current Financial Secretary of Local 2287; has also served as Trustee, Delegate, and Delegate to the General Convention.
- Active Union Presence – Always visible at the Labor Day Parade, Softball Picnic, and other union events, giving his time to support members.
- Relentless Advocate – Consistently fights for union members' rights, both on the job site and on his own time.

MARKET SHARE CRISIS

WHY ARE OUR MEMBERS OUT OF WORK WHILE JOBS GO NON-UNION?

THE UNION MARKET SHARE IN NEW YORK CITY IS ONLY 27%

- WE CANNOT BE A UNION THAT ONLY DOES INFRASTRUCTURE WORK
- WE MUST FIGHT FOR EVERY INCH OF WORK IN THIS CITY
- DOWNTOWN BROOKLYN — THE SIZE OF BOSTON — IS COMPLETELY NON-UNION
- LONG ISLAND CITY WAS LOST WITH LITTLE TO NO FIGHT BACK
- DOMINO SUGAR FACTORY, WILLIAMSBURG DEVELOPMENTS, AND 740 EIGHTH AVENUE (A 1,000-FOOT SKYSCRAPER) ALL WENT NON-UNION
- 5 TIMES SQUARE — MASSIVE RENOVATION — GONE NON-UNION
- 25 WATER STREET — THE BIGGEST RESIDENTIAL CONVERSION EVER — GONE NON-UNION
- INSTEAD OF FIGHTING FOR OUR WORK, WE ARE PICKETING COFFEE SHOPS

THIS MUST STOP — IT'S TIME TO TAKE BACK OUR CITY AND PUT OUR MEMBERS BACK TO WORK.

OUR PATH FORWARD

PUTTING OUR MEMBERS BACK TO WORK

OUR PLAN TO MAKE NEW YORK CITY UNION AGAIN

- REBUILD RELATIONSHIPS WITH REBNY
- REWORK 485X
- PUT ORGANIZERS BACK ON THE STREET — NOT HANDING OUT TURKEYS
- DEDICATED ORGANIZERS FOR EVERY TRADE:
DOCK BUILDERS • TIMBERMEN • FLOORCOVERERS • MILLWRIGHTS • CABINET MAKERS
- EVERY REP WILL ALSO BE AN ORGANIZER
- PRESENCE IN EVERY BOROUGH
- ONE POINT PERSON PER BOROUGH — ACCOUNTABLE TO THE ORGANIZING DIRECTOR

PAUL CAPURSO'S - CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Right Now The Membership's Biggest Concern is Capurso Allowing McCarron to Merge Our Pension and Medical Plans With The Rest of The Country. Such a Merger Will Result in The End of 55 and Out, Retiree Medical and The Banking of Hours For Medical Coverage. But Don't Forget What Capurso Has Already Done to Screw The Membership. Here is a List of Capurso's Most Recent Accomplishments

1. He Sold Out The Membership By Approving a Stipulation and Order That Effectively Ends The Consent Decree On 12/31/25. If He is Elected We Will be Merged With The Eastern States and North Atlantic Regional Councils.
2. He Raised The Assessments Then Gave Everyone Raises Including Himself.
3. He Hired a Lot Of His Cronies And Gave Them Exorbitant Salaries.
4. He Created a B-Rate Which Will Lead To The Resetting Of Our Pay Rate Including Prevailing Rate.
5. He Has Stopped Retired Certified Shop Stewards From Being Sent Out As a Shop Steward To Do Their 39 Hours. Many Retirees Rely On That Extra Income.
6. He Gave The Contractors Hospitality and Outer Borough High Rise Residential Rates.
7. He Created a 7-10 Yr Apprenticeship by Putting a 10,000 Hour Work Requirement on Apprentices Before Achieving The Full Rate.
8. He Gave Former Regional Manager Mike Roden a Non-Disclosure Agreement After Being Caught With a Known Associate Of The Colombo Crime Family.
9. He Gave Recently Terminated Council Representative Anthony Monjie a Non-Disclosure Agreement
10. He Hired The Former Javits Center Shop Steward, Mike Vastarelli, as a Council Rep After. He Was Fired For Stealing Time (No-Show) And Filing Fraudulent Shop Steward Reports.
