

Lyrium (LYR) - Legal & Compliance Notice

Privacy. Fairness. Decentralization.

Version 1.0 - October 2025: Prepared by the Lyrium Core Team

1. Utility Nature of LYR

Lyrium (LYR) is the native utility coin of the Lyrium network. It enables transactions, mining participation, and interaction with decentralized applications. LYR exists to power the network, not to represent ownership, dividends, or profit rights of any kind.

2. Compliance and Participation

Participation in the Lyrium presale or network activities may be subject to KYC and local regulations.

Access may be restricted in certain jurisdictions to comply with applicable laws.

This site and its materials are provided for informational purposes only and do not constitute financial advice or solicitation.

3. Responsibility and Transparency

Lyrium Core operates with transparency, fairness, and a commitment to privacy.

Users are responsible for understanding and adhering to their local regulations before participating in any Lyrium-related activity.
