WHEREAS, each Party acknowledges that under R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-6, this Agreement is unenforceable only if the challenging Party proves, by clear and convincing evidence, BOTH (1) involuntary execution AND (2) substantive unconscionability at execution combined with lack of disclosure, lack of written disclosure waiver, and lack of adequate knowledge – and each Party affirms that none of these conditions exists;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 Separate Property: All property, income, and assets acquired by either Party in their individual name before or during marriage, including without limitation: real estate, personal property, business interests, financial and securities accounts (checking, savings, brokerage, retirement, money market, investment accounts), employment income, increased earning power (professional degrees, licenses, certifications, and earning capacity derived therefrom), gifts, inheritances, digital assets (cryptocurrency, NFTs, digital wallets, online accounts), intellectual property (patents, copyrights, source code, websites whether active or dormant), and all appreciation, growth, income, returns, and future development or commercialization thereof.

1.2 Joint Property: Property, assets, and debts titled in both Parties' names jointly and acquired during marriage with joint funds.

1.3 Separate Debts: Debts incurred by either Party in their individual name.

1.4 Joint Debts: Debts incurred jointly by both Parties in both their names during marriage.

1.5 Alimony/Spousal Support: Financial support paid by one Party to the other after separation, divorce, or dissolution, as specified in this Agreement.

2. SEPARATE PROPERTY

2.1 Ownership and Control: Each Party retains sole and exclusive ownership, control, and management of their separate property as defined in Section 1.1.

2.2 No Marital Claims: Neither Party shall acquire any right, title, interest, or claim in the separate property of the other Party by reason of the marriage, regardless of the duration of marriage or any contributions made by the non-owning Party.

2.3 Right of Disposition: Each Party may dispose of their separate property by sale, gift, will, trust, or otherwise, without the consent or approval of the other Party.

2.4 Separate Debt Responsibility: Each Party is solely responsible for their separate debts and shall indemnify and hold harmless the other Party from any liability arising from such separate debts.

2.5 Commingling Protection: If separate property becomes commingled with joint property, the contributing Party retains their ownership interest, provided adequate records exist to trace the separate contribution.

2.6 No Transmutation: Separate property does not become joint property unless both Parties execute a written agreement specifically identifying the property and their intent to convert it. No deed, title change, account registration, or beneficiary designation – including adding a spouse to title – effects a transmutation without such written agreement.

2.7 Business Interests: Separate business interests remain separate property regardless of spousal involvement, consultation, or contribution during marriage, unless the non-owner spouse makes direct documented capital contributions or becomes a legal co-owner. Advice, consultation, or emotional support creates no property interest. No marital claim arises from business operations, growth, or increased value during marriage.

2.8 Trust Asset Protection: The non-settlor spouse waives all rights to distributions, principal, remainder interests, beneficiary designations, and any claim that trust assets constitute marital or community property – including assets held in discretionary, generation-skipping, and offshore asset protection trusts, whether domestic or foreign. Each Party's irrevocable trusts are not subject to division under this Agreement.

2.9 Active Appreciation and Marital Income Exclusion: Pursuant to the Parties' right under R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-3(a)(1) to define their respective property rights, all income from and appreciation of premarital property – whether passive or active – remains the separate property of the owning Party. Each Party knowingly waives any claim to such income or appreciation under R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-5-16.1(b) or equitable principles. This provision is essential consideration for this Agreement.

3. JOINT PROPERTY

3.1 Joint Property Assets: Joint property consists only of assets titled in both Parties' names jointly and acquired during marriage with joint funds, as defined in Section 1.2.

3.2 Joint Property Division: Upon separation, divorce, or dissolution, joint property shall be divided equally (50/50) between the Parties.

3.3 Joint Debts: Joint debts consist only of debts incurred jointly by both Parties in both their names during marriage, as defined in Section 1.4. Upon separation, divorce, or dissolution, joint debts shall be divided equally (50/50) between the Parties.

3.4 Joint Residence - Proportional Interest: If the Parties jointly purchase a residence during marriage:

(a) Each Party's ownership percentage equals: (Their total contributions ÷ Combined contributions of both Parties) × 100.

(b) Records shall be maintained to document each Party's contributions;

(c) This proportional interest supersedes any presumption of equal ownership for jointly-titled property.

3.5 Joint Residence - Dissolution Rights: Upon separation, divorce, or dissolution:

(a) Either Party may elect to purchase the other's proportional share at fair market value determined by: (i) mutual agreement; (ii) if no agreement within 30 days, the median of three valuations from the largest online real estate platforms by market share (currently Zillow, Redfin, and Realtor.com) on the same date; or (iii) if online values vary by >20% or are unavailable, the average of two certified appraisals (one per Party);

(b) The purchasing Party must obtain financing in their sole name and complete the buyout within 120 days of election;

(c) If no buyout election is made or completed within 120 days, the residence shall be sold with net proceeds distributed according to each Party's proportional share.

3.6 Separate Property Exclusion: All property not meeting the definition of joint property in Section 1.2 remains separate property of the owning Party, regardless of any contributions, improvements, or efforts by the non-owning Party during marriage.

4. ALIMONY/SPOUSAL SUPPORT

4.1 General Waiver: Both Parties waive all rights to alimony, spousal support, or maintenance, whether rehabilitative or permanent, except as provided in this Section 4. The Section 4 formulas apply uniformly to temporary, pendente lite, and permanent support. Any temporary support awarded in excess of this Section 4 shall be credited dollar-for-dollar against future support or refunded to payor within 90 days of this Agreement being upheld.

4.2 Children of the Marriage: Biological children of both Parties (including IVF) and children legally adopted by both Parties. Either Party may request genetic testing at any time at the requesting Party's cost. A child who does not meet this definition is excluded from the Section 4.5 calculation, and any excess support attributable to that child shall be refunded or credited against future support.

4.3 Employment Reduction: Support reduces by 50% if the recipient has not obtained Employment within 24 months of divorce. "Employment" means earning at least $30,000 annually in gross income, verified by tax returns or W-2s. Payor may request annual verification.

4.4 Net Income Definition: "Net income" means gross income minus federal income tax, state income tax, Social Security, and Medicare withholdings, excluding voluntary deductions. Net income is the three-year average of payor's annual income preceding divorce filing, but if the most recent year's income is lower due to involuntary job loss, disability, or business closure beyond payor's control, then it is the most recent year's net income, not the three-year average.

4.5 Support Calculation: Monthly support equals the following percentage of payor's net income, minus 50% of recipient's net income, based on the number of Children of the Marriage:

- 0 Children: 0% of payor's net income (no support)
- 1 Child: 2% of payor's net income
- 2 Children: 4% of payor's net income
- 3 Children: 6% of payor's net income
- 4 Children: 8% of payor's net income
- 5 Children: 10% of payor's net income
- 6+ Children: 12% of payor's net income

Maximum: $5,000 per month, adjusted annually by CPI-U from the date of marriage through the earlier of separation or dissolution filing.

4.6 Duration Limits: Support duration shall be calculated as a percentage of marriage length (from date of marriage to date of separation):

- Less than 5 years: 5% of marriage length
- 5 to <10 years: 10% of marriage length
- 10 to <15 years: 15% of marriage length
- 15 to <20 years: 20% of marriage length
- 20 to <25 years: 25% of marriage length
- 25+ years: 30% of marriage length, capped at 8 years total

4.7 Hardship Exception: If strict application of Sections 4.5 and 4.6 would leave the recipient eligible for support under a program of public assistance (including but not limited to Medicaid, SNAP, or TANF) for the recipient's household size, support shall be increased to the minimum extent necessary to avoid that eligibility. This subsection implements the floor required by R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-6(c).

4.8 Reformed Formula Fallback: Total lifetime support shall not exceed the LESSER of: (a) The total support payable under Sections 4.5, 4.6, and 4.7; or (b) Payor's average annual net income multiplied by: Marriages <15 years: 50% Marriages 15–25 years: 75% Marriages 25+ years: 100%

4.9 Income Floor: No support payable if payor's gross annual income is below the greater of: (a) 75% of their gross income in the year prior to executing this Agreement, or (b) 250% of the Federal Poverty Level for a single person, as published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services for the year of divorce filing.

4.10 Automatic Termination: Support ceases upon the earliest of: (a) recipient's remarriage; (b) recipient's cohabitation with another person in a romantic relationship for 60+ consecutive days; (c) either Party's death; or (d) duration expiration under Section 4.6.

4.11 No Modification: Both Parties acknowledge that modification requires clear and convincing evidence of changed circumstances not reasonably foreseeable at execution that would make enforcement unconscionable. The following are specifically acknowledged as reasonably foreseeable: dissolution, workforce departures, income or employment changes, health issues, economic conditions, and childcare decisions.

4.12 Support Cap: Total lifetime support shall not exceed the LESSER of: (a) The amounts calculated under Sections 4.6 and 4.7; or (b) Payor's average annual net income multiplied by:

- Marriages <15 years: 50%
- Marriages 15-25 years: 75%
- Marriages 25+ years: 100%

4.13 Post-Divorce Income: Maintenance shall not be modified based on payor's income increases occurring after divorce filing, including promotions, bonuses, raises, business growth, investment returns, inheritances, gifts, or new employment at higher compensation. This reflects the parties' intent that post-divorce earnings remain separate property.

5. LIFESTYLE CLAUSES

[these clauses are not legally enforceable, but a good place to lay out the aspirations of your marriage. Below are a few ideas of what you can include, modify as you see fit]

The Parties acknowledge the clauses in this section represent the goals, reason, and purpose of their marriage. Through these clauses they seek to align their interests to build a more successful, productive, and ideal union.

5.1 Shared Responsibilities: The Parties commit to building a successful family through equal overall contributions. Family responsibilities typically divide into financial and domestic domains. Each Party may lead in one domain (60-70%) while supporting in the other (30-40%), creating a reciprocal balance and shared benefit. For example, one party may contribute 60-70% financially and 30-40% to domestic responsibilities. The other party may contribute 30-40% financially and 60-70% domestically.

5.2 Workforce Commitment: Both Parties value financial independence and shared economic contribution. During marriage, the Parties aspire to maintain workforce participation while accommodating for any childcare-related career breaks.

Both Parties recognize that maintaining career skills strengthens long-term family financial security. This reflects shared values about economic partnership and mutual responsibility.

5.3 Conflict Resolution and Family Preservation:

- In case of marital difficulties, both Parties commit to preserving family unity through creative living arrangements if necessary (separate bedrooms, nearby homes, etc.)
- Both Parties agree to speak respectfully about each other publicly and privately
- Both Parties commit to prioritizing their children's relationships with both parents regardless of marital status

6. INHERITANCE AND ESTATE RIGHTS WAIVER

6.1 Complete Inheritance Waiver: Each Party waives all rights to inherit from the other's estate, including: elective share rights under R.I. Gen. Laws § 33-28-1 et seq.; the surviving spouse's life estate in real estate under R.I. Gen. Laws §§ 33-1-5 and 33-1-6; allowances under R.I. Gen. Laws § 33-10-3; homestead rights; family allowance; and any right to take against the will. Each Party acknowledges this waiver satisfies R.I. Gen. Laws § 33-28-3(a) and is executed voluntarily, with fair and reasonable disclosure, for the specific purpose of ensuring enforceability under the § 33-28-3(b) standard.

6.2 Estate Planning Consistency: If either Party executes a will or estate planning documents, such documents shall be consistent with this Agreement's inheritance waivers.

6.3 Binding Waiver: These inheritance waivers remain in effect regardless of changes in circumstances, domicile, or law.

6.4 ERISA Retirement Rights: ERISA spousal rights cannot be waived before marriage. Each Party shall execute any required spousal consent or beneficiary waiver within 30 days of written request after marriage, and agrees not to seek a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or similar order against the other Party's retirement or deferred compensation plans, which remain separate property under Section 1.1. Failure to execute is a material breach entitling the requesting Party to specific performance, $25,000 liquidated damages, and reasonable attorney fees.

7. FINANCIAL CHANGES DURING MARRIAGE

7.1 Binding Regardless of Changes: The Parties acknowledge that their financial circumstances may change significantly during marriage, including substantial increases or decreases in income, assets, or liabilities. This Agreement remains binding regardless of such changes.

7.2 No Implied Modifications: Changes in financial circumstances, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable, shall not modify, invalidate, or excuse performance under this Agreement unless modified in compliance with all requirements of Section 17 (Modification and Finality).

7.3 Commitment to Terms: Each Party affirms this Agreement reflects their current intentions and commits to honoring its terms regardless of future financial success, failure, or changed circumstances.

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ATTORNEY FEES

8.1 Mandatory Mediation: Any dispute arising under this Agreement must first be submitted to mediation with a qualified family law mediator. Both Parties must participate in good faith for at least three (3) full sessions over a minimum of 60 days. Mediation costs shall be allocated as follows: (a) Successful Mediation: If a written settlement agreement signed by both Parties resolves all disputed issues, the higher-earning Party at time of mediation shall pay all mediation costs up to the lesser of (i) 2% of that Party's gross annual income, or (ii) $10,000; (b) Unsuccessful Mediation: If no complete resolution is reached, both Parties shall share all mediation costs equally.

8.2 Extended Mediation Cost-Sharing: For mediation continuing beyond 60 days, costs shall be shared equally regardless of outcome.

8.3 Optional Arbitration: Either Party may terminate mediation and elect binding arbitration with 30 days' written notice after the initial 60-day period. Arbitration shall be conducted by a single arbitrator selected from AAA's family law panel, in the city where marital residence was established, with judgment final and non-appealable except for fraud or arbitrator misconduct. The arbitrator shall strictly apply this Agreement's terms and shall assess unconscionability only as of the date of execution, consistent with R.I.

Gen. Laws § 15-17-6(a)(2) and Marsocci v. Marsocci, 911 A.2d 690 (R.I. 2006). The arbitrator shall not apply equitable modification, changed-circumstances analysis, or any post-execution fairness review.

8.4 Arbitration Costs: The Parties shall initially share arbitration costs equally. The arbitrator may reallocate costs based on the reasonableness of each Party's position and conduct during the proceedings.

8.5 Legal Representation Fund: If either Party lacks sufficient resources to retain competent counsel for any proceedings related to this Agreement, including mediation, arbitration, or court litigation, the higher-earning Party at time of request shall advance reasonable attorney fees up to the lesser of (i) 4% of that Party's gross annual income, or (ii) $50,000, total across all proceedings to ensure adequate representation. Advanced fees shall be: (a) Reimbursed from any award or settlement received by the represented Party, or in full if the represented Party loses on all material issues per Section 8.7; or (b) Forgiven if no recovery occurs or if reimbursement would cause financial hardship. This cap represents the maximum obligation for legal representation assistance regardless of the number or type of proceedings.

8.6 Court Litigation - Limited Circumstances: Court proceedings are permitted only to: (a) Compel participation in mediation or arbitration; (b) Enforce an arbitration award; (c) Seek emergency relief where irreparable harm would occur.

8.7 Frivolous Challenge Penalty: A Party who unsuccessfully challenges this Agreement's validity in any forum shall reimburse the other Party's reasonable attorney fees and costs. A challenge is "unsuccessful" if the Agreement remains enforceable as to its core property-division and alimony provisions, regardless of partial relief on collateral issues. This shifting applies unless a court finds in writing that it would render this Agreement unconscionable as applied.

8.8 Prevailing Party Attorney Fees: In mediation, arbitration, or permitted court proceedings, the prevailing Party may recover reasonable attorney fees and costs, subject to the arbitrator's or court's discretion based on the relative merits of each Party's position and financial circumstances.

8.9 Waiver of Jury Trial: Both Parties waive their right to a jury trial for any dispute relating to this Agreement.

8.10 Settlement Incentives: Any dispute resolved within 30 days of initial filing pays no attorney fees to either party. Either party may request one 30-day suspension of proceedings for reflection and consultation.

8.11 Confidentiality of Proceedings: All mediation, arbitration, and court proceedings under this Agreement shall be confidential. Neither Party may disclose pleadings, testimony, exhibits, or settlement positions to third parties except counsel, financial advisors, or as required by law. Violations trigger the penalties in Section 10.4.

9. LANGUAGE COMPREHENSION

9.1 English Language Agreement: This Agreement is written in English. Each Party acknowledges they have read, understood, and voluntarily agreed to all terms herein.

9.2 Non-Native Speaker Protections: Any Party whose native language is not English represents that they have: (a) Sufficient English proficiency to understand this Agreement's terms and legal consequences; or (b) Consulted with a qualified attorney or certified translator fluent in their native language who explained this Agreement's terms and implications.

9.3 Waiver of Language Claims: Each Party irrevocably waives any future claim that they: (a) Did not understand this Agreement due to language barriers; (b) Were denied adequate opportunity to obtain translation or native-language legal counsel; (c) Signed this Agreement without full comprehension of its terms or consequences.

9.4 Translation Available: Each Party acknowledges they had the right to request a written translation of this Agreement in their native language prior to execution, and either obtained such translation, declined it, or confirmed sufficient English proficiency to proceed without one.

10. PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

10.1 Confidentiality Obligations: The Parties agree to maintain strict confidentiality regarding: (a) the existence, terms, and contents of this Agreement; (b) private communications, conversations, and personal matters; (c) financial information; (d) personal photographs, videos, or recordings; (e) medical, mental health, or counseling information; (f) family relationships, personal struggles, or embarrassing incidents; and (g) children's private matters by: limiting online sharing to private family/friend settings not publicly searchable; avoiding embarrassing or exploitative content; prohibiting use of children's images or information for personal gain, business promotion, or social media influence; and prioritizing children's long-term dignity and privacy interests over parental sharing preferences.

10.2 Respectful Communication: During and after marriage, both Parties shall speak respectfully about each other, refrain from disparaging statements, avoid sharing private marital details publicly or on social media, and maintain dignified communication.

10.3 Commercial Exploitation Prohibition: Neither Party may commercially exploit the other's name, image, likeness, or reputation through: (a) selling or licensing photographs, videos, or recordings; (b) publishing books, articles, or monetizing interviews about the marriage; (c) participating in tell-all media; or (d) interfering with professional relationships.

10.4 Enforcement and Remedies: Violations entitle the non-breaching Party to injunctive relief, actual damages, and reasonable attorney fees. Where actual damages are impractical to determine: (a) general violations – the greater of $4,000 or 2% of the breaching Party's gross annual income; (b) commercial exploitation or willful breach – the greater of actual damages, disgorgement, $10,000, or 5% of the breaching Party's gross annual income. These amounts are liquidated damages, not penalties. The arbitrator or court may adjust any amount it finds disproportionate.

10.5 Binding Nature: All obligations survive marriage termination permanently.

10.6 Exceptions: Disclosure permitted when required by law, court order, necessary to protect children from harm, or required for legitimate legal proceedings.

11. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND DISCOVERY WAIVER

11.1 Complete Financial Disclosure: Each Party has provided complete and accurate financial disclosure through the Asset and Liability Disclosure Schedules attached as Exhibits A and B, which include all material assets, debts, income, and recent financial statements.

11.2 Reliance and Acknowledgment: Each Party acknowledges they have received, reviewed, and understood the other Party's financial disclosures and are entering this Agreement in reasonable reliance on these disclosures being complete and accurate.

11.3 Discovery Waiver: The Parties waive all discovery rights, except discovery a court finds constitutionally required or necessary to adjudicate a specifically pleaded claim of fraud, duress, or incapacity at execution. Discovery for post-execution asset changes, lifestyle, or general financial review is expressly waived.

12. COMPREHENSIVE FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE WAIVER

12.1 Knowing and Voluntary Waiver: Each Party expressly, knowingly, and voluntarily waives all disclosure rights under R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-6(a)(2)(ii) and any other legal principle.

12.2 Independent Enforceability: This waiver operates as a separate and independent basis for enforceability, ensuring this Agreement remains fully binding even if Section 11 disclosures are deemed inadequate.

12.3 Specific Statutory Waiver: Each Party expressly and voluntarily waives, in writing, any right to disclosure of the property or financial obligations of the other Party beyond the disclosure provided, pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-6(a)(2)(ii), and acknowledges this satisfies the statutory waiver requirement irrespective of attached schedules.

12.4 Voluntary Relinquishment: Each Party acknowledges they could have demanded complete disclosure and verification but voluntarily chose not to exercise these rights and relinquish any right to claim inadequate disclosure.

12.5 Irrevocable Future Claims Waiver: Both Parties irrevocably waive claims of: (a) Inadequate disclosure; (b) Unconscionability based on financial surprise; (c) Lack of investigation opportunity; (d) Insufficient review time.

12.6 Counsel Acknowledgement: Each Party either (a) consulted independent counsel regarding this waiver, or (b) was advised to do so and voluntarily declined under Section 15.3. Each Party knowingly accepts the consequences.

13. OPTIONAL PRE-MARRIAGE ASSET UPDATE

13.1 Recommended Update: The Parties are encouraged, but not required, to exchange updated asset and liability schedules between 30 and 90 days before the marriage date. Any updates shall supplement Exhibits A and B.

13.2 Reaffirmation: If updated schedules are exchanged, the Parties may execute a written reaffirmation confirming this Agreement remains fully effective. Such reaffirmation does not modify any substantive term.

13.3 No Effect on Enforceability: Failure to exchange updates or execute any reaffirmation shall not invalidate or affect the enforceability of this Agreement. The disclosures in Exhibits A and B as of the execution date remain operative for all purposes.

14. ASSET CHANGES AND CONTINUED VALIDITY

14.1 Primary Enforceability: This Agreement remains valid regardless of post-execution changes in assets, income, or net worth, whether disclosed or undisclosed.

14.2 Challenge Waiver: Each party waives challenges based on post-execution asset changes, market fluctuations, or failure to disclose changes.

14.3 Time-Independent Validity: Enforceability does not depend on timing between execution and marriage or compliance with update requirements.

15. INDEPENDENT LEGAL COUNSEL

15.1 Opportunity for Counsel: Each Party acknowledges they have had the opportunity to consult with independent legal counsel of their choice regarding the terms and effects of this Agreement.

15.2 Voluntary Execution: Each Party enters into this Agreement voluntarily, without coercion, duress, or undue influence, after adequate time for review and consultation.

15.3 Waiver of Counsel: If either Party chose not to retain counsel, that Party executed a separate written waiver attached as Exhibit C, acknowledging (a) they were expressly advised to obtain independent counsel; (b) they understand the rights being relinquished; (c) they had adequate time to seek counsel; and (d) they chose not to do so voluntarily.

15.4 Significance of Counsel Choice: The Parties acknowledge that under Marsocci v. Marsocci, 911 A.2d 690, 697 n.3 (R.I. 2006), absence of independent counsel is a significant – but not disqualifying – voluntariness factor. Any Party proceeding without counsel waives any future claim that such absence renders this Agreement involuntary.

16. GOVERNING LAW AND ENFORCEABILITY

16.1 Rhode Island Law: This Agreement is governed by Rhode Island law, including R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-1 et seq. and controlling case law (Marsocci, Penhallow, Rubino), regardless of domicile or asset location. Subsequent law reducing enforceability shall not apply retroactively.

16.2 Jurisdiction: Each Party submits to the Rhode Island Family Court (R.I. Gen. Laws § 8-10-3) and waives forum non conveniens defenses. Either Party may alternatively enforce this Agreement in any jurisdiction with equal or stronger prenuptial protections. Inconsistent judgments are void.

16.3 Law Selection: Neither Party may invoke any other state's law, foreign law, or equitable doctrine to weaken this Agreement's enforcement, except for the public assistance override at R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-6(c) and non-waivable child support obligations under § 15-5-16.2.

16.4 Validity: This Agreement is presumed valid absent clear and convincing evidence of statutory violation. Neither Party may file in any jurisdiction with weaker enforcement than Rhode Island.

17. MODIFICATION AND FINALITY

17.1 Entire Agreement: This Agreement, together with Exhibits A and B (disclosures) and Exhibit C (counsel waiver, if applicable), constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes all prior agreements or representations, written or oral.

17.2 Modification Requirements: Amendments require a written instrument (a) presented in final form at least 30 days before execution; (b) signed by both Parties before a notary, per R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-5; and (c) accompanied by written acknowledgment from each Party's independent counsel confirming review and understanding.

17.3 No Oral Modifications: No oral agreements, representations, or modifications shall be binding.

18. SEVERABILITY

18.1 Severance of Invalid Provisions: If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, that provision shall be automatically severed, and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

18.2 Replacement Provision: Any severed provision shall be reformed to nearest valid equivalent reflecting the original intent of the Parties.

18.3 Intent: The Parties expressly intend that invalid provisions be severed rather than invalidating the entire Agreement, even if the invalid provision goes to the essence of this Agreement.

19. EFFECTIVE DATE AND TIMING

19.1 Effective Date: This Agreement shall become effective immediately upon the marriage of the Parties.

19.2 Ideal Timeline: Sign the premarital agreement before proposing, then update disclosures 30-90 days before the wedding. This ensures informed engagement decisions, keeps legal matters separate from wedding planning, and is legally preferred.

19.3 Alternative Timeline: Execute this Agreement at least 60 days before the wedding date, allowing 2-3 weeks for both parties to review the final version before signing. Reach out to an attorney at least 4-6 months before the wedding to begin the process.

19.4 Advisory Nature: These recommendations enhance enforceability but are not validity requirements.

20. COMPREHENSIVE ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

20.1 Informed Voluntary Agreement: Each Party enters this Agreement freely and voluntarily, with complete understanding of its terms, legal effects, and binding nature.

20.2 Financial Disclosure Confirmation: Each Party confirms they either: (a) received full financial disclosure with reasonable opportunity for verification; OR (b) knowingly and voluntarily waived disclosure rights as detailed in Section 12.

20.3 Legal Counsel Confirmation: Each Party confirms they were advised to obtain independent legal counsel and provided sufficient time for consultation.

20.4 Maximum Statutory Waiver: Except as expressly provided in Sections 4 and 6, each Party waives all statutory rights to property division, spousal support, and inheritance to the fullest extent permitted under R.I. Gen. Laws § 15-17-1 et seq., §§ 15-5-16 and 15-5-16.1, and Marsocci v. Marsocci, 911 A.2d 690 (R.I. 2006).

20.5 Comprehensive Future Waiver: Each Party irrevocably waives any future claim of: (a) lack of understanding; (b) inadequate disclosure; (c) unfairness or unconscionability; (d) duress, coercion, or undue influence; (e) retention of rights beyond those expressly preserved herein; or (f) any other challenge to this Agreement's validity or enforceability.
