The Minimum Pass Marks in the Semester Examinations is 40% for each subject in UG Courses and 50% for PG Courses. A minimum of 28 out of 70 in the Semester Examinations must be secured to get pass in UG Courses and 35 out of 70 in the case of PG Courses.

UG: A minimum of 40% as the aggregate of Internal Assessment and Semester Examination will be required to get PASS. Candidates obtaining less than 28 out of 70 in the Semester Examination, but securing 40 and above as aggregated of Internal Assessment and Semester Examination will be declared as FAIL.

PG: A minimum of 35 out of 70 in the Semester Examinations and 50 as the aggregate of Internal Assessment and CE is required to get PASS. The candidate obtaining less than 35 out of 70 in the Semester Examination, but securing 50 and above as aggregated of Internal Assessment and SE will be declared as FAIL. However, the minimum mark criterion will not apply to the performance in Pre-Model, Model for both theory and practical.

(II) Minimum Pass Marks for Practical

The Minimum Pass Marks in the Semester practical Examination is 40% for UG Courses and 50% for PG Courses in each practical. A minimum of 24 marks is required out of 60 (where the Maximum SE is 60) in the Semester Examinations should be secured for a pass in UG Courses and 30 out of 60 in the case of PG Courses.

UG: A minimum of 40% as the aggregate of Internal Assessment and SE will be required for a PASS. S.No.	Percentage	Class
1.	75% and above in firstattempt	First Class withDistinction
2.	60% and above, but less than75%	First Class

2.   Attendance Requirements for appearing for Comprehensive Examinations

Students must regularly attend their classes. They will be permitted to appear for the Comprehensive Examinations (CE) only if they secure minimum of 75% of Attendance during the Semester.

If the student has Attendance of 65% to 74%, the Principal has the discretion to condone and permit the student to appear for the Comprehensive Examinations on reasonable grounds.

A student's attendance which ranges between 50% and 64% will not be permitted to write the Comprehensive Examinations of the Current Semester. However he/she will be permitted to write exams in the next semester only if the lack of attendance is compensated in that Semester. In case, he/she is unable to compensate the lack of attendance, he/she has to re-do the course by joining the previous semester. The Internal Assessment marks earned by the student will have no value and he/she has to earn his/her Internal Assessment marks afresh.

The opportunity of carrying forward the lack of attendance is possible only once during the entire period of course of study. This combination of lack of attendance can be done only between subsequent semesters, i.e., 1 and 2, or 2 and 3, or 3 and 4, or 4 and 5, or 5 and 6.

If a student has availed the opportunity to compensate once and lacks attendance in any of the subsequent semesters, he/she has to re-do that semester in the next year by joining as a fresh candidate. In the case of a student's attendance falling below 50% in any semester, he/she will not be permitted to appear for the Comprehensive Examination. Further he/she will not be permitted to go to the next Semester, since he/she cannot compensate the deficiency of attendance in the next Semester, even if he/she attends 100% of the classes. In such case, the student has to re-do the course, by joining the semester, during which the attendance was lost.
