CONSTITUTION OF THE SOCIO-ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED GROUPS (SEDG) CELL

The Cell shall be known as the “Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups (SEDG) Cell” of the College.

The Cell was previously known as the “OBC & SC/ST Cell.” In order to adopt a broader and more inclusive institutional framework for addressing the educational, socio-economic, and developmental needs of disadvantaged and underrepresented students and staff, the name of the Cell has been changed from “OBC & SC/ST Cell” to “Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups (SEDG) Cell.

Objectives

- To aware the Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Group students regarding various scholarship programs, financial assistance, fee concessions, and other welfare schemes.
- To implement, monitor, and evaluate reservation policies and Government/UGC schemes relating to disadvantaged groups.
- To provide counselling, guidance, and support to SC/ST and other eligible students in addressing academic, personal, and social challenges and organise awareness programmes.
- To organise interactive sessions and meeting with the students to address their personal and social problems.
- To organize outreach programmes and awareness activities to promote inclusion, equal opportunity, and access to educational and welfare benefits among socio-economically disadvantaged groups.

Functions of Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups

1. Collect regularly, on an annual basis, information regarding course-wise admissions of candidates belonging to the Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups from different courses and to take follow up actions, where required
2. Collect reports and information regarding the GOI orders and the various aspects of education, training and employment of Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Group, for evaluating new policies or modifying existing policies by the commission.
3. The Cell organises periodical meeting with Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups to help them to understand the facilities available in the college
4. To conduct interactive session with them to equip them deal with personal, social and academic problems.
