

WEEK ONE: Spiritual Warfare

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What is one totally irrational, silly, or weird thing that you are afraid of?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Do you struggle in believing in angels and demons? Why or why not?
3. If you fight regularly with your family, we challenged you to not view them as the real enemy. Is this a new thought to anyone? Does anyone find that to be a difficult perspective to have?
4. Read aloud James 4:7 and Luke 10:18-20. Has anyone had an experience where you victoriously called on the authority of Jesus Christ over an evil presence? If not, was there a time where you could have? (please be brief)
5. You must be a Christian first before you have the authority of Jesus Christ. If you are not sure you are a Christian, and want to know more, please take a few minutes to talk to a group leader before you leave.
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK TWO: Renewed Thinking

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What is something you used to believe was true, but you've changed your mind about?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Read aloud Romans 12:1-2. In what ways does God renew our thinking after we are saved? What things have you begun to see differently?
3. Kyle made the statement “What you believe determines how you behave”. Can you think of an example of a time when you changed what you believed about something and it changed the way you behaved? Please share.
4. This next question takes courage to share: What are some lies that you believe or have believed in the past about yourself? What have you wrestled with that needs renewed thinking? (i.e. abandonment, rejection, or trust issues, lies like “I’m not good enough”, etc.)
5. It’s always good to remind ourselves of what is actually true. Take turns sharing what God says is true about our identities. How does God feel about us? How does God view all of us?
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK THREE: Relational Connection

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

If you got arrested tonight and could make ONE phone call, who are you calling and why?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Read John 15:1-8 aloud but only one verse at a time. It's a word picture of how our relationship with Christ is like a branch connected to a vine. After each verse ask, "What do you think this verse means?" and/or "Could anyone give me an example of what that would look like?"
3. How does focusing on our own relationship with Christ improve our family conflict dynamic? List as many ways as you can think of.
4. With 10 being the strongest, and 1 being the weakest, rate what you think your relationship is right now with Christ. Would anyone be willing to share their number and why you rated it that way?
5. If your number was lower than 10, what's one thing you can do to help get it grow?
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK FOUR: Legacy

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What's something your family passed down to you that isn't money?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. What kind of legacy was handed down to you? Were you handed a godly legacy, a godless legacy, or somewhere in between?
3. Read aloud 2nd Timothy 3:16-17. Dave said, “Staying in the Word” will equip you for every good work and shape your life and legacy. How often do you read God’s Word? (or listen to it on an app or a podcast)
4. Would anyone be willing to make a goal this week to increase the frequency of reading God’s Word?
5. Read aloud Ecclesiastes 4:9-10. “Staying close to a brother or a sister” is important to community. Is there a godly friendship / influence in your life you are thankful for?
6. Is there a negative friendship / influence in your life you need to do away with?
7. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK FIVE: Happiness

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

If you could spend the next year doing anything you wanted, what would you do?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. If you said that prayer with Wesley on the video for the first time and meant it, would you be willing to let the group know that you trusted Jesus Christ today so we can celebrate with you? (Shhh...just a suggestion but next week the group could perhaps pitch in and purchase them a Bible and present it to anyone who trusted Jesus!)
3. Read aloud Ecclesiastes 2:4-11. Wesley said that saying, “No” can lead to happiness. What are some ways that could be true in your life specifically?
4. What are some possible “idols” in your life that get too much of your time, attention, and even your “worship” at times?
5. Is there something, (like a job, a person, a talent, a relationship, a status, etc.), that you are attaching your identity to that you shouldn’t be? If you lose it or if it changes do you think your happiness will suffer?
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK SIX: Kids

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What's something you did as a kid that you KNOW kids would never get away with today?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Read aloud Exodus 20:3-5. Do you have any Idols in your life?
3. Most likely not everyone in your group has kids, but for those who may, would anyone be willing to admit they have made their children an idol at times? If so, how? Is this a “once in a while” kind of thing, or is it bigger than that?
4. Is it hard to believe that God loves your kids more than you do? If you don’t have kids, then think about how your Mom loves you instead. Does anyone struggle with that statement at all?
5. Dave said, “Idols never deliver”. What do you think he meant by that?
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK SEVEN: Technology

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What's the ONE app on your phone you'd have the hardest time deleting and why?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Jeff said, “We shouldn’t be casual about technology because it’s been intentionally designed by someone to become habitual.” Do you view technology too casually or do you have an awareness of the dangers of it?
3. Read aloud 1st Corinthians 6:12. Do you think you are mastering technology, or do you think it may be mastering you?
4. Take time to list the positives technology can have on our relationships. And then take the time to list the ways it can negatively affect your relationships.
5. When thinking about the “Formation Test” Jeff talked about, would anyone be willing to address the concerns of these questions: “What is technology producing in me?” and “What kind of person am I becoming?”
6. Let’s all do an exercise. Everyone, take out your phones. Now unlock them. Now everyone pass their phones to the person on their right. Now, “You have total permission to look through everything!” (Let two or three seconds pass and then say,) “Just kidding! Don’t look through their phone, please pass them back!” Now, here is the question: “Did you feel anxious? And if you did, was it because you are a person who might not do well in passing the “Secrecy Test”? If so, maybe your phone is the altar where you sacrifice purity, relationships, or peace! No one has to answer or respond to this. It’s just something to think about.
7. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.

WEEK EIGHT: Money & Stuff

Step 1: SCAN QR & WATCH VIDEO

Step 2: OPTIONAL ICE BREAKER

What's the dumbest or most disappointing thing you've ever spent money on?

Step 3: WEEKLY QUESTIONS

1. What is the one thing that stood out to you in this video?
2. Can you give an example of something you bought that you thought would bring you happiness but in the end it didn't?
3. Do you think you are a person who looks to money and stuff to satisfy the longings in your heart? Why or why not?
4. Read 1 Timothy 6:6-10 aloud. Paul says, "Contentment is true wealth". What do you think that means? What are some other things we can take away from this passage?
5. Does anyone have a story where you trusted God with your generosity, and you were on the receiving end of a blessing from God? Would you be willing to share it? (please be brief)
6. What is at least one thing you can do this week, that perhaps the Holy Spirit is challenging you with, in response to these truths?

Step 4: PRAYER REQUESTS

How can we pray
for you this week?

Do a round robin of prayer requests from your group, write these down and send out as a weekly reminder via text/email so your group remembers to pray.
