Time & date

Events usually start at 7pm, since the bookstore is open as usual until then, and it gives visitors plenty of time to come to the shop in the Old Town after work.

Events at our store usually take place on Wednesdays or Thursdays.

Bar service

At a small bar, we will be serving a variety of beers (alcoholic and non-alcoholic), white wine, prosecco, and water during the reception.

To protect our books from grease stains, we ask that you refrain from bringing any food to the reception. If it is of importance to you to serve something special to your guests, please let us know.

Book sale

We source your book in advance through our partners—if your book is not readily available at the usual distribution partners warehouses, please let us know so we can work out the details together.

A book table will be set up and the book can be purchased on-site that evening. If you would like to hand out gratis copies that evening, please let us know in advance.

Advertising

We'll start promoting the event on our website, via our newsletter and on Instagram two weeks in advance.

Space rent

We ask for a room rental fee; we would be happy to provide you with details of the terms and conditions by phone or email.

The bar service is either billed separately from the rental fee or drinks can be served directly for a fee.

Labor costs for setup, bar operations and book sale are included in the room rental fee.
