ENTRE NOUS

Is a curated exhibition and showroom bringing together contemporary art, design, fine jewelry, and haute couture within an intimate and elegant setting. Co-organized by Blue Avenue Gallery, the show will take place from 2-30 March, unfolding within the dreamlike universe of Emma Donnersberg's interior design. Guests will be invited to discover a collection of handmade fine jewelry, schedule personalized appointments with a bespoke couture brand, and experience a selection of contemporary artworks, each piece thoughtfully presented and available for acquisition. Taking place in Paris during Fashion Week, the event offers a refined moment of encounter between artistic disciplines, welcoming guests into a space dedicated to creation and conversation.

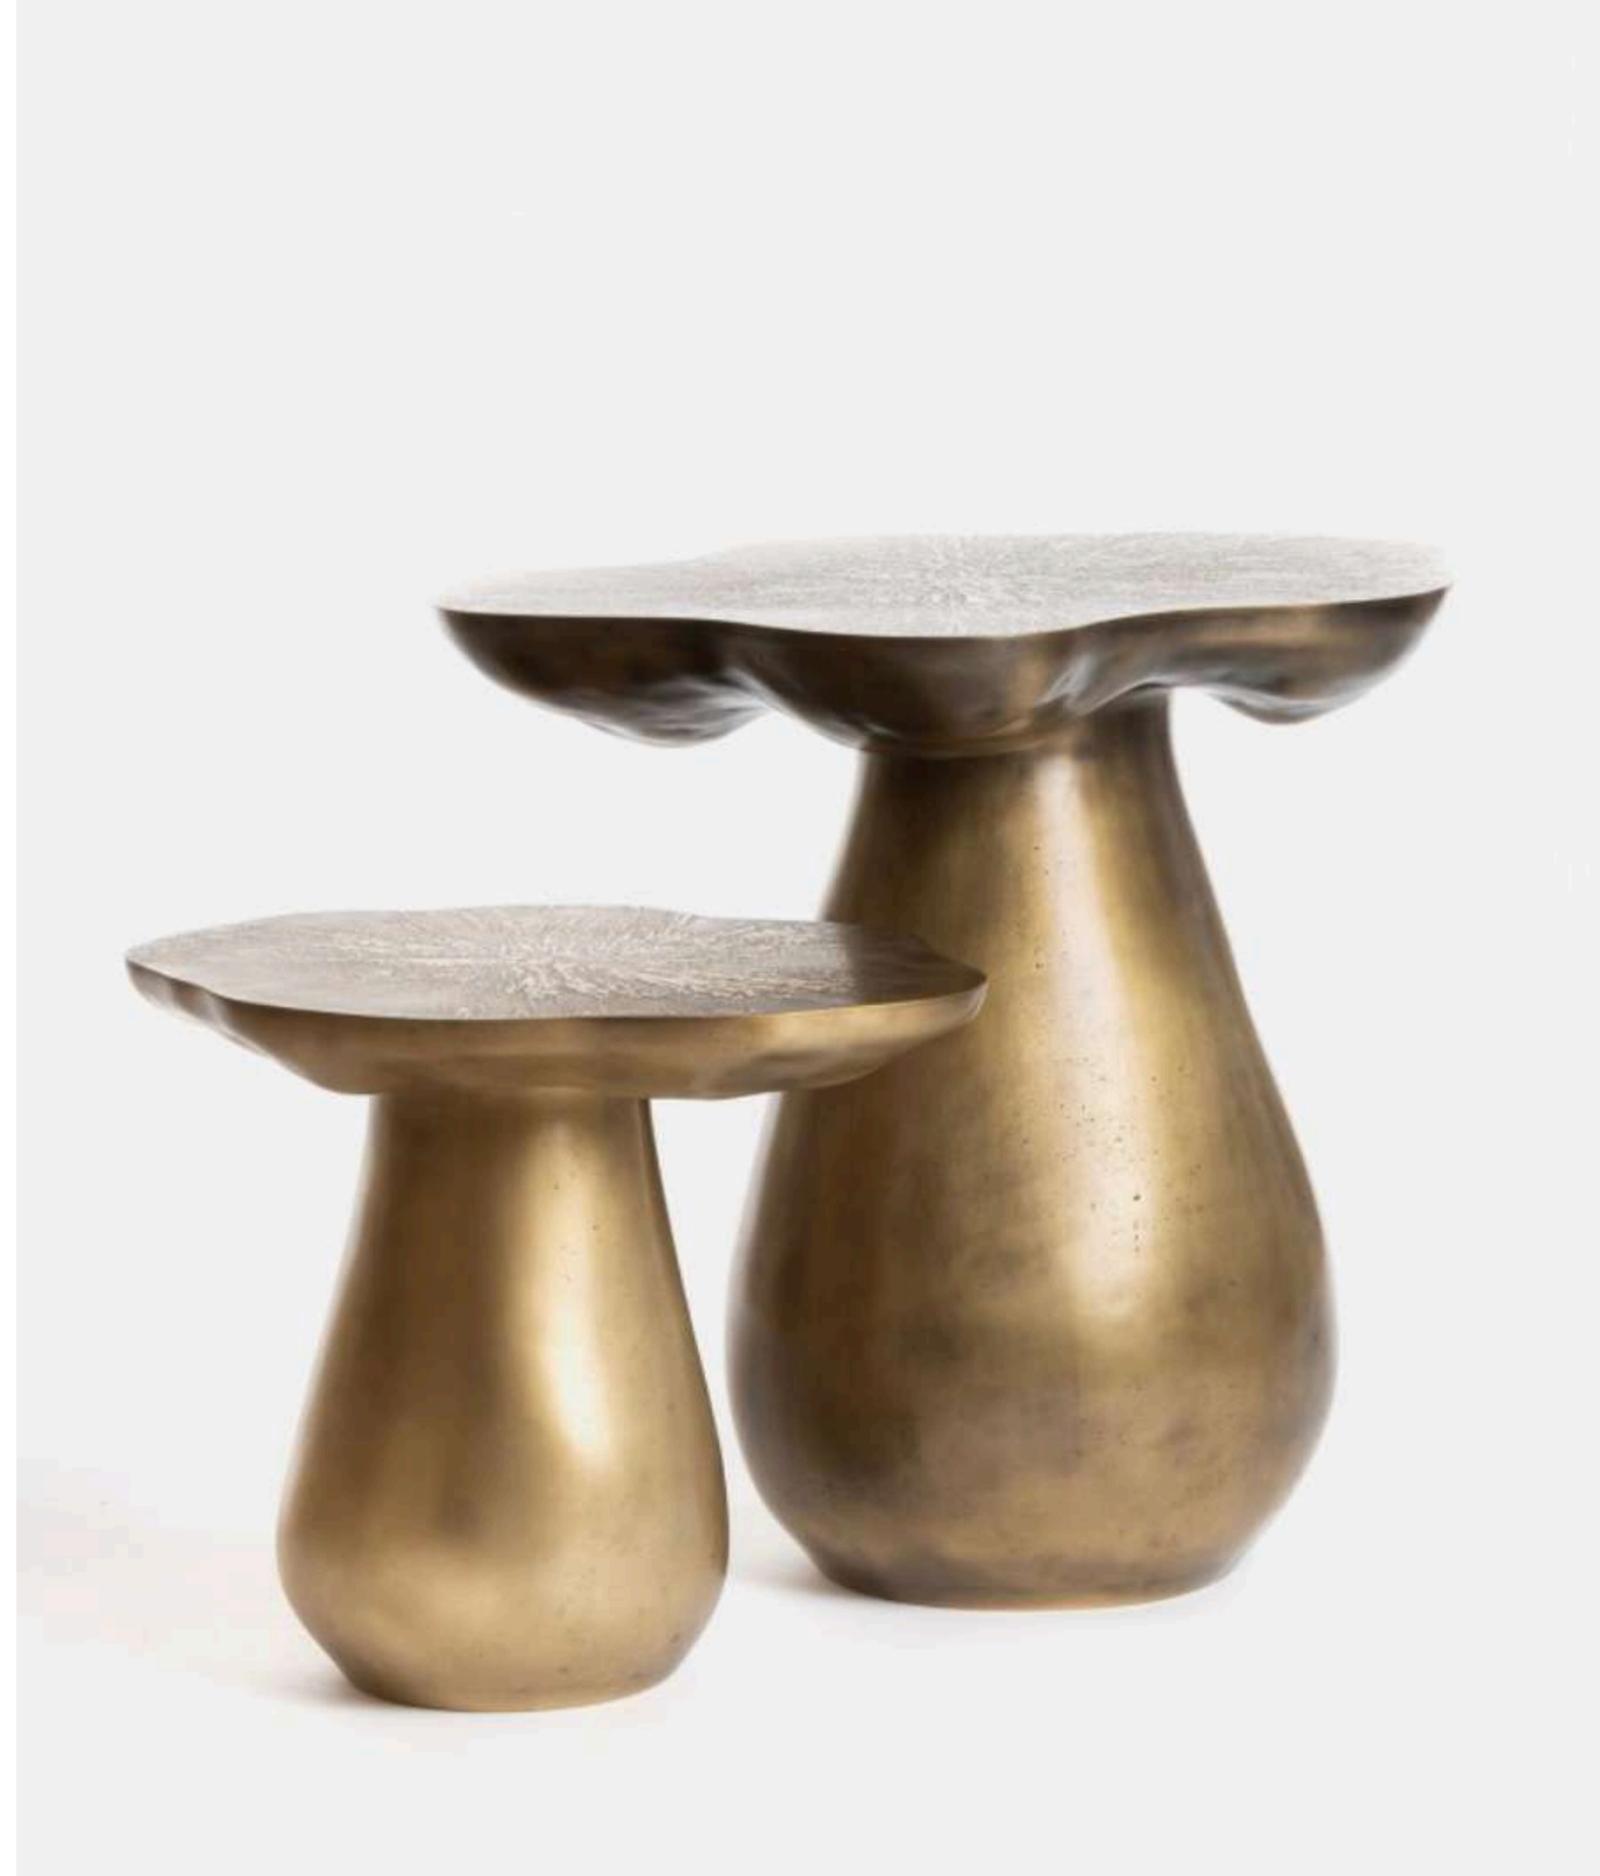

BLUE AVENUE

Founded by Milica Mitrovic, Blue Avenue is a nomadic gallery dedicated to presenting contemporary art and design through curated exhibitions, international art fairs, and an active online platform. The gallery represents a selected group of artists across cultures and mediums, spanning both abstract and figurative practices. Alongside its exhibition program, Blue Avenue advises private and corporate clients on acquisitions and tailored art initiatives, and organizes showrooms and special events in dialogue with interior designers.

EMMA DONNERSBERG

Emma Donnersberg is an international furniture and interior designer based in Paris and New York, known for her intuitive, meditative approach that blends art and design into cohesive, living interiors. With a commitment to exceptional materials and drawing inspiration from nature's forms, textures, and rhythms, her creations suggest movement and presence as she creates both sculptural and functional pieces with a dreamlike, spiritual quality. Emma has earned international recognition and is regularly featured at leading design fairs such as PAD and Design Miami.

DELANACRE

Delanacre is a handcrafted fine jewelry brand celebrated for its refined fusion of French design expertise and traditional Polynesian mother-of-pearl craftsmanship, creating luxurious pieces that combine Tahitian pearls, precious and semi-precious stones. Based in California, the brand distinguishes itself through a signature twist which brings movement and identity to every piece, embodying a modern yet timeless aesthetic that reflects a harmonious balance of artistry and tradition. On view is the Talisman Collection.

AURUM PARIS

Aurum Paris is a couture brand that creates unique, made-to-measure pieces crafted by skilled métiers d'art artisans, blending haute couture techniques with refined design and high quality fabrics to produce sophisticated garments tailored to each client. Rooted in French craftsmanship, the house offers personalized service and invites clients to book private fittings in its Paris atelier, where inspirations and measurements are transformed into bespoke masterpieces that reflect timeless elegance and individual style.

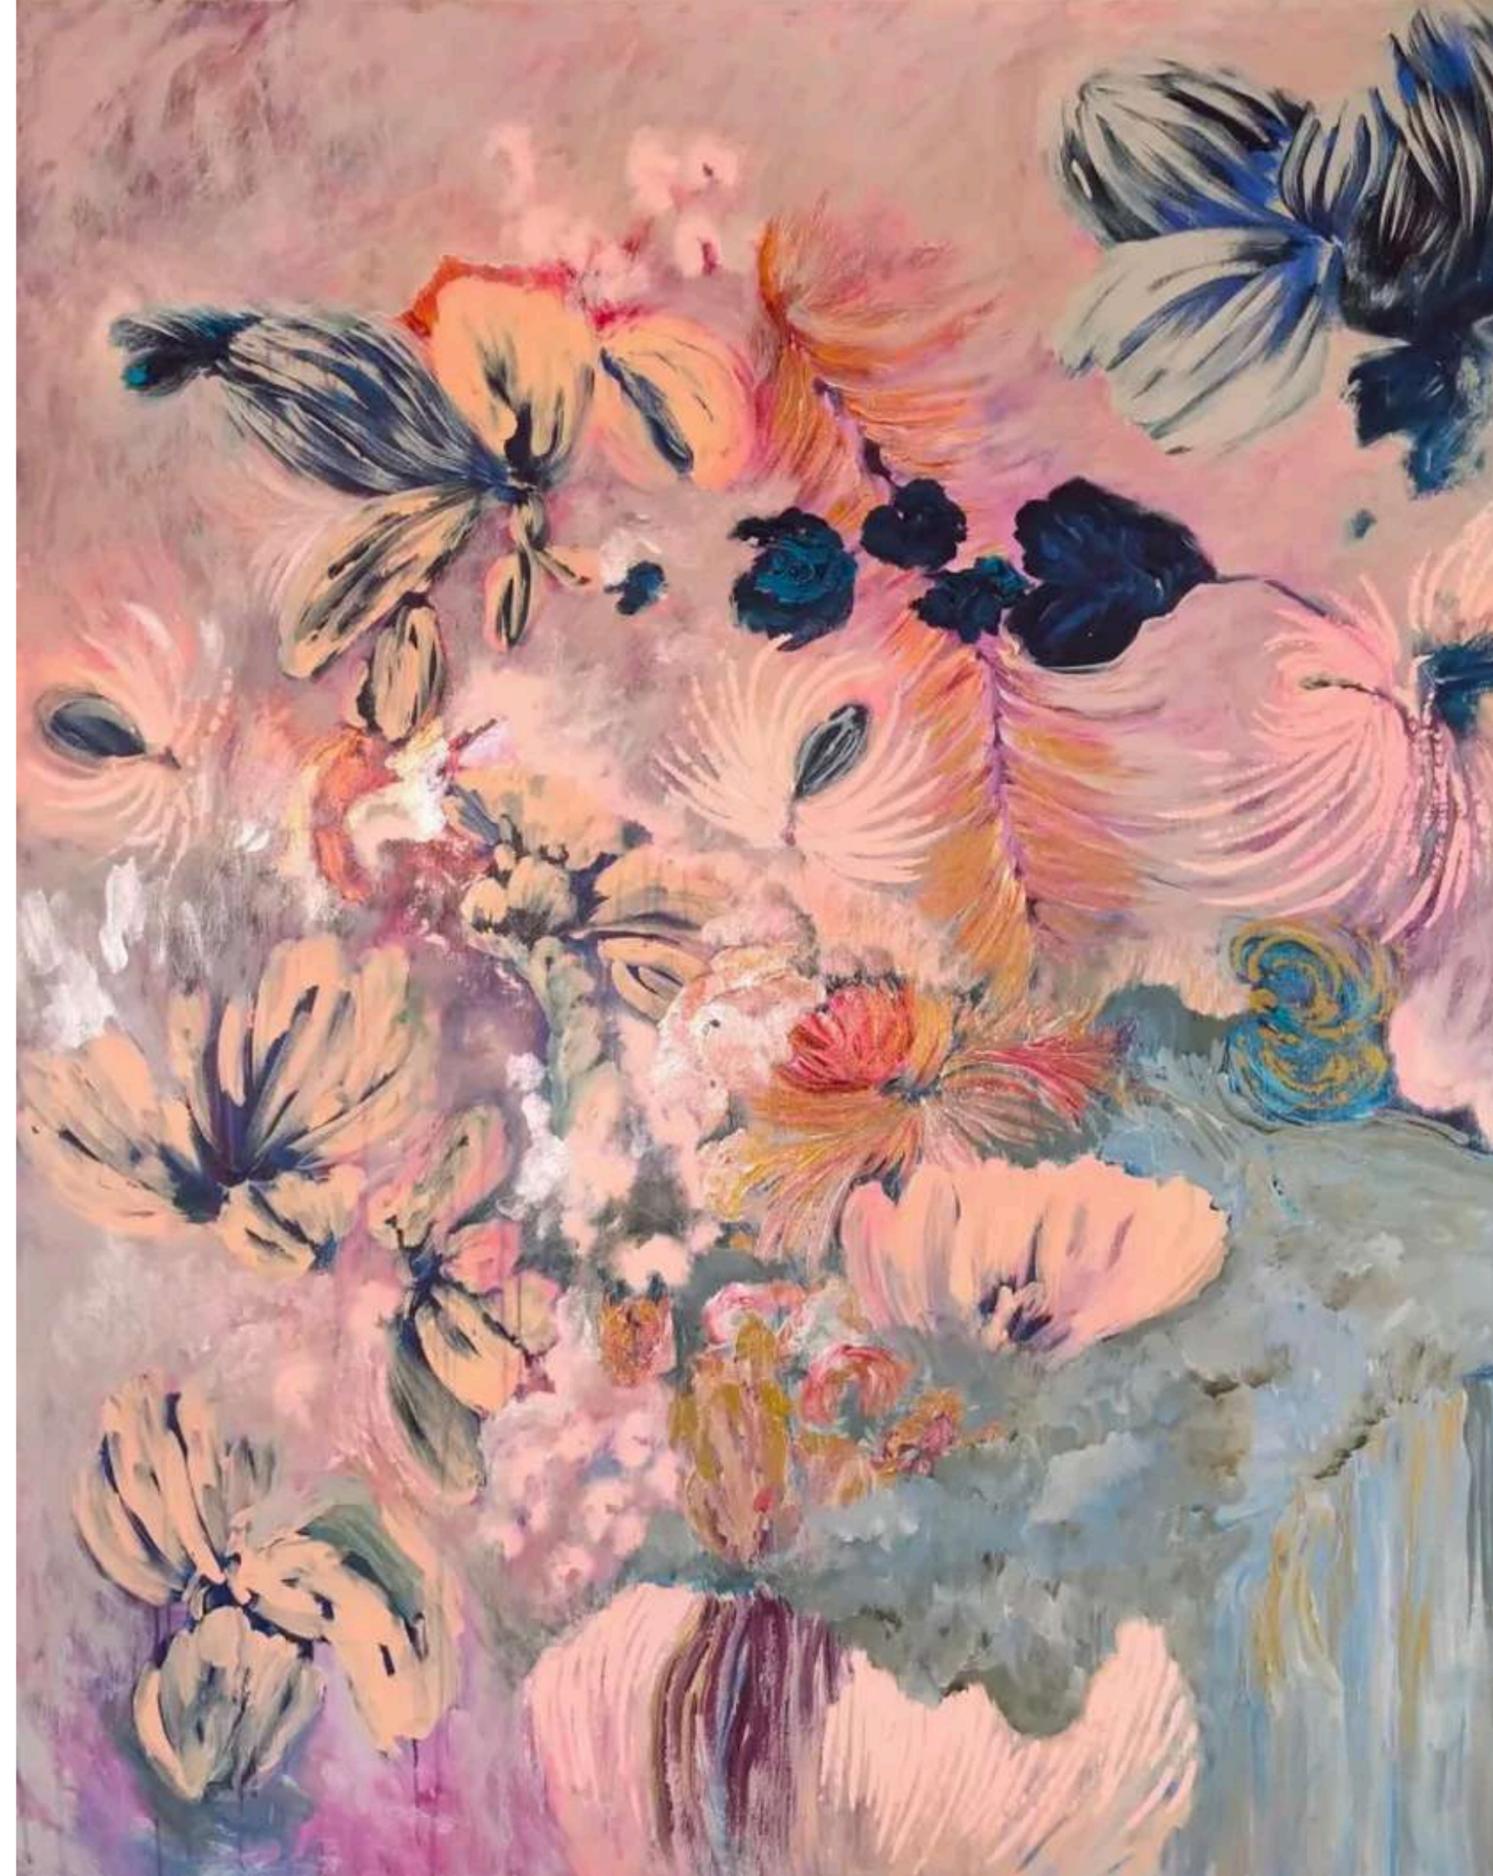

VICTOR GINGEMBRE

Victor Gingembre is a French sculptor and architect whose monumental works, exhibited internationally from Paris to New York, explore the dialogue between structure and emotion through a classical yet contemporary lens. Trained in Paris and Milan and having worked alongside leading figures in architecture and design including Christian de Portzamparc, Philippe Starck, and Richard Martinet, he revisits themes such as the female form and mythology while also developing modular furniture systems, collaborating with master marble artisans to integrate his sculptural vision into ambitious projects worldwide. ILEANA MAGODA

Ileana Magoda is a contemporary artist whose practice explores the threshold between the physical and the metaphysical, using botanical imagery to examine themes of fragility, resilience and perception. Through compositions that shift from apparent harmony to underlying complexity, she reflects on embodiment and vulnerability creating works that are both intimate and universal. Her work has been exhibited internationally and featured in major art fairs like Art Basel Miami, and is held in prominent private and corporate collections including Dior, Fendi, and JP Morgan Chase. Representation: Emma Donnersberg Gallery.

OUSSAMAH GHANDOUR

Oussamah Ghandour is a contemporary artist working between Beirut, Paris, Toronto and New York, whose internationally exhibited practice explores the tension between chaos and structure, instinct and discipline. Through expressive, subtly surreal compositions rooted in abstraction, he examines the dualities of human experience - love and loss, strength and vulnerability, creating emotionally resonant works that invite reflection on balance, perception, and inner freedom. Representation: Blue Avenue Gallery.
