Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Charles A. Maynes also serves in a separate capacity as insurance agent, and in that capacity, they can sell you life insurance, annuities, and other insurance products. Agent receives commissions and other compensation for the sale of insurance products. Commissions are paid by insurance carriers, vary from carrier to carrier and can change daily, and presently range from 1% to 9% based on various factors, including the type of product, the term of the product, and the initial investment value of the insurance contract. Additionally, the agent can qualify for incentives, bonuses, reward trips, and other compensation from BOSS, their insurance marketing organization, including AE, insurance companies, or related organizations based on insurance transactions. These incentives include, but are not limited to, trips, gifts, meals, entertainment, participation in bonus programs, reimbursement for training, marketing assistance, educational efforts, advertising, and travel expenses to conferences and events. We address these potential conflicts of interest by disclosing them through the ADV Part 2B brochure, other B.O.S.S. disclosures, following procedures, and the firm's fiduciary obligation to each client.
