Bathurst Goldfields Resort

Rooted in History, Ready for Celebrations.

Tucked beneath the iconic Mount Panorama in Bathurst, our property is more than just a venue, it honours the story of this region. While Bathurst itself was one of Australia's earliest inland settlements and played a central role in the gold rush era, Bathurst Goldfields has brought this chapter of colonial life to life since 1973.

Originally established as an educational and heritage site, Bathurst Goldfields honours the legacy of the gold rush and the people who shaped this land, from pioneers and prospectors to families building new lives.

What's been created here is more than just weathered timber and rusted tools - it's a living, breathing story of grit, community, and the early spirit of regional Australia.

Today, those stories linger in the land. You'll find them in the creak of the old floorboards, the curve of a worn fencepost, and the way the afternoon light hits the gum trees just so. With sweeping views, historic buildings, and peaceful bush surrounds, Bathurst Goldfields is steeped in heritage and rustic character.

From gatherings beneath the trees to music and laughter in the old barn, every event here becomes part of a long and living story — and we'd be honoured for yours to be next.
