

Adult English and Education

Education planning & career skill training for Refugees, Approved Asylees, Cuban & Haitian applied asylees

FREE AND ONLINE

Refugee Assistance Alliance

Would you like help with:

- Education and career planning?
- Vocational training certifications to start or advance in careers?
- Degree evaluation and translation services for work or study purposes?
- Enrollment in Adult Education institutions or college?

You can learn the skills to transform your future

We will work with you to figure out what career path would suit your skills and interests. We'll help you create a plan to begin, and help you along the way.

We'll connect you to study options that work for you – at home or online. We can help meet the costs of your study - half up front, half when you have successfully completed it - or your exam fees.

RAA can help you with every step

We can help you improve your English for study.

We can provide assistance with supplies for learning or training.

We'll help you figure out what career path would work for you

You can study online or at study centers near your home.

We'll help you complete enrollment in the course you choose

If you had a career in your home country, we can help you re-certify to earn promotions and opportunities here.

You can join the program if you:

- Arrived in the U.S. within the last 5 years
- Are a refugee or have asylum status
- Are a Cuban or Haitian seeking asylum
- Entered under Ukrainian parole (Feb 2022 – Sep 2023)
- Hold an Iraqi or Afghan SIV
- Are a certified survivor of human trafficking

Learn the skills to transform your future

RAA SERVICES	OPTIONS	RESULT
English Language training	Enrollment at community education centers. One to one ESL classes with a volunteer teacher. English for Academic Purposes for college applications .	Most vocational and college courses require proficient English for entrance.
Vocational skill training	Find a program of study to earn certification in Vocational training. Course enrollment assistance for job skill building opportunities.	You'll join other RAA refugees trained in skills including nursing, cosmetology, phlebotomy, computer technician, home health aide, teaching.
GED & College Enrollment	GED preparation studies, test registration and examination fees. Guidance and enrollment assistance for degree programs.	You'll receive help in navigating the path to college.
Degree evaluation & translation	We'll pay for degree evaluation and translation services for the purposes of work or study.	You'll be able to use existing qualifications from your home country to access employment or further study.

To find out more, please contact:

salma@refugeeassistancealliance.org

Refugee Assistance Alliance is a South Florida based non-profit organization which has been granted funding by the U.S. government to help workers who are refugees gain the skills they need to start to progress in their jobs and future careers.

You can find out more about us at www.refugeeassistancealliance.org