The blue-collar values, white-collar experience we need

My grandparents immigrated to Sunnyside from Ireland in the 1910s. My father worked until he was 74 as a Belmont Racetrack ticket teller and a Local 3 electrician. I understand the sacrifices made by generations of my family to give me the opportunity for a better life. I remember my father telling me he didn't realize he was poor because of how our community came together to provide for us. Every New Yorker deserves that same opportunity and support from our government.

I started working when I was 12: bus boy, waiter, mail room, concession stand and was able to attend college on financial aid. I then went to Japan and taught English for a year before returning and going to law school on financial aid. I had a successful career as an international business attorney for 25 years and now it's time to give back. People want someone with the blue-collar values I grew up with and my white-collar experience to deliver for our community. I know what our community needs because I'm from it and I've served this community for over a decade.

Brent is a FDR Democrat who believes in giving people the tools they need to empower themselves with good jobs and excellent schools, and a strong social safety net to fall on when times are tough. Brent will fight for the following in Albany:

Safe Streets, Safe Schools

Our children and loved ones are being pushed in front of trains, assaulted in broad daylight, and shot outside high schools. I will hold gunmakers accountable for the flow of illegal guns. I will direct more police into our subway system. I will implement safe corridors created between our schools and transit hubs enforced by School Safety Agents and cameras to keep our children safe. I will bring more streetlights and cameras to our neighborhoods. I will get our homeless into the facilities they need.

Civil Rights & Equality for All

With abortion rights under attack, what's next, Marriage Equality? I will ensure our state remains committed to protecting our civil rights and ensuring equality for all. That's why Stonewall Democrats, 504 Democrats, and the Asian American Chamber of Commerce has endorsed me. I will fight to protect these vital rights and enshrine our civil liberties in state law.

Excellent Schools

I am where I am today because I was able to have a good education on financial aid. All children should have that same opportunity. I will fight for more specialized high schools, more gifted & talented programs, smaller classroom sizes, and more in-district schools.

Universal Healthcare

When our insurance company wouldn't cover my father's hospital stay, my family was in danger of going bankrupt to take care of the person we loved. No family should have to go through that. Every family deserves the tools to protect and empower themselves and their families which is why I will push for universal healthcare for all NY'ers regardless of status.
