This report reflects our commitment to providing timely, data-driven insights into both our programmatic achievements and our financial performance. ### Financial Results

Financial Summary

Revenue

Fedcap achieved $404.5 million in operating revenue for fiscal year 2025—surpassing the original budgeted figure of $385.1 million and marking a 6.8% increase over fiscal 2024. This performance is especially notable given the continued economic uncertainty of the past several years, which disrupted funding cycles and strained nonprofits across the country.

Despite these external pressures, Fedcap continued its disciplined long-term growth trajectory. Over the past decade and a half, the organization has expanded from $73.5 million in revenue in 2010 to $404.5 million in 2025—representing a 12.04% compounded annual growth rate (CAGR). This extraordinary performance underscores the strength of Fedcap's diversified portfolio, mission-aligned strategy, and operational resilience

Sources of Revenue, by Type

Fedcap's revenue portfolio is diverse mix of government and institutional contracts, fee for service, and philanthropic support.

Government contracts remain our primary revenue source, accounting for 70% of total revenue. While we will continue to aggressively pursue contracts, the uncertainty and fluidity of government environments across our footprint reinforce the need for a more balanced revenue model.

Our growth strategy prioritizes expanded fee-forservice revenue, particularly within education and health. The continued growth of our education practice has already strengthened our diversification through tuition-based programs, and we project that fee-for-service revenue will represent 35% of total revenue by 2030.

Sources of Revenue, by Type

Since 2010, Fedcap has intentionally diversified its portfolio across our four core practice areas—education, workforce development, health, and economic development—creating a balanced and resilient enterprise. Workforce Development has expanded rapidly and is now the organization's largest practice, driven by significant government partnerships and strong placement outcomes. Education has emerged as our fastest-growing practice, driven by a strategic mix of acquisitions and new program launches in high-demand fields such as clean energy, traditional trades, and technology and innovation.

We are now accelerating growth in Health, where robust funding opportunities—particularly in intellectual and developmental disabilities (ID/DD)—are aligned with our mission and national need. This work is anchored by key leadership investments within Easterseals and positions us to strengthen and scale health services across our footprint.

Business Pipeline

Fedcap's robust pipeline and diversified contract portfolio serve as a critical buffer against market fluctuations. Since Q3 of FY25, we have increased our active pipeline by 36.5%, significantly exceeding our 20% growth target. We now have $3.25 billion in qualified prospects, positioning the organization for sustained expansion across all practice areas.

Fedcap executed $245MM in annual new or recompete business in FY25 in more than 686 contracts and fee-for-service transactions.
