

Futures Wheel

The Futures Wheel is a way of organizing thinking and questioning about the future – a kind of structured brainstorming. It is a method for graphical visualisation of direct and indirect future consequences of a particular change or development.

