

Housing Resource List

February 2026

Affordable Housing Units (2 - 3 Bedrooms)

THIS LIST IS NOT SUBSIDIZED OR EMERGENCY HOUSING: Fair Market Rates (FMR) have been established by HUD to identify affordable housing options. Many apartments listed within this document fall within FMR rates for the Dane County, WI HUD Metro FMR area. This document is designed to assist individuals seeking affordable housing. This list is not intended to be an all-inclusive vacancy and resource listing for Dane County.

What is Market Rate Housing?

This refers to apartments that are considered market rate, meaning the property is not considered an affordable housing complex or subsidized apartment community. Rents at these properties are usually set at market prices and may be comparable to other rents in the area.

SUBSIDIZED HOUSING / INCOME RESTRICTED
What is Subsidized Housing? A program that reduces housing costs for low-income individuals and families. In this type of housing, the government pays landlords to lower rent for tenants who qualify. What does Subsidized Housing mean for you? Rent based on 30% gross income This type of housing allows the tenants to pay rent that is less than market rent, based on a percentage of the tenant's income. HUD Subsidized Rent: The rent is based on income, and the local housing authority or HUD pays the remaining portion. A resident pays 30 percent of their monthly income on rent. Note: Rent would be approximately 30% of your household's adjusted

SHELTER RESOURCES
What is Housing for the Homeless? List of shelter options for singles and families. Resources listed in these categories are NOT permanent housing. By accessing shelter or connecting with an Outreach worker, you will be added to the local Coordinated Entry list for housing programs that work with those experiencing homelessness. What does Homeless Housing mean for you? These programs may offer temporary or long-term housing combined with case management and supportive services to help stabilize housing. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You may need a referral from a service provider or entry through Coordinated Entry - Eligibility may be based on chronic homelessness, income, or vulnerability assessments.
MARKET RATE HOUSING
What is Market Rate Housing? This refers to apartments that are considered market rate, meaning the property is not considered an affordable housing complex or subsidized apartment community. Rents at these properties are usually set at market prices and may be comparable to other rents in the area. What does Market Rate Housing mean for you? You are responsible for paying the full rent amount set by the property owner or management. These rents may reflect average prices in the area and can vary depending on location, amenities, and demand. Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Market-rate units do not offer rental assistance. You must meet the income requirements set by the landlord. - Rent may increase annually and is not capped by public housing guidelines. - Approval is typically based on credit, rental history, and income (often 2.5-3x the monthly rent).
