September 2026

Affordable Housing Units (0 - 1 Bedrooms)

THIS LIST IS NOT SUBSIDIZED OR EMERGENCY HOUSING: Fair Market Rates (FMR) have been established by HUD to identify affordable housing options. Many apartments in this document fall within FMR rates for the Dane County, WI HUD Metro FMR area. This document is designed to assist individuals seeking affordable housing. This list is not intended to be an all-inclusive vacancy and resource listing for Dane County.

DISCLAIMER: Urban Triage, Housing Navigation Services, and/or the Housing Resource Desk are not responsible for conditions, terms of leases, or quality of management services of the units on this list. You are responsible for inspecting and obtaining information about the housing and management services you are interested in. The majority of this list is comprised of ads from MadisonProperty.com and Craigslist websites.

FLEXIBLE LANDLORDS / PROPERTIES

What are Flexible Landlords or Properties?

Landlords or rental properties that are open to working with tenants who may face barriers to traditional housing approval. This includes low credit scores, past evictions, criminal history, or inconsistent income documentation.

What does this mean for you?

Flexible landlords may offer more lenient application processes, accept alternative proof of income, or allow co-signers. Some may be open to working with housing case managers, support letters, or payment plans for deposits.

Notes:

- These units are not necessarily income-restricted or subsidized.
- Flexibility varies. Please ask your specific questions about credit, background checks, and income verification before applying.
- A strong rental reference, an explanation letter, or support from a service provider can help increase approval chances.

SECTION 42 UNITS / LOW INCOME HOUSING TAX CREDIT (LIHTC)

What is Subsidized Housing?

A program that reduces housing costs for low-income individuals and families. In this type of housing, the government pays landlords to lower rent for tenants who qualify.

What does Subsidized Housing mean for you?

Rent based on 30% gross income

This type of housing allows the tenants to pay less than market rent, based on a percentage of the tenant's income.

HUD Subsidized Rent: The rent is based on income, and the local housing authority or HUD pays the remaining portion. A resident pays 30 percent of their monthly income on rent.

Note: Rent would be approximately 30% of your household's adjusted

SUBSIDIZED HOUSING / INCOME RESTRICTED

What is Subsidized Housing?

A program that reduces housing costs for low-income individuals and families. In this type of housing, the government pays landlords to lower rent for tenants who qualify.

What does Subsidized Housing mean for you?

Rent based on 30% gross income

This type of housing allows the tenants to pay less than market rent, based on a percentage of the tenant's income.

HUD Subsidized Rent: The rent is based on income, and the local housing authority or HUD pays the remaining portion. A resident pays 30 percent of their monthly income on rent.

Note: Rent would be approximately 30% of your household's adjusted

CO-OPERATIVE HOUSING UNITS

What is Co-operative Housing?

A form of housing where residents jointly own and manage their living space, typically through a cooperative where residents have a say in how the building is run and share in the responsibilities and benefits. Co-ops are often provided an opportunity for very low- to moderate-income people to join together and often foster a strong sense of community with equally shared resources and responsibility.

What does Co-op Housing mean for you?

You are not a renter but a member who helps govern the community. Co-ops often offer below-market rent and a focus on shared responsibilities and decision-making.

Notes:

- You may need to contribute to the maintenance or participate in meetings/committees.
  - Some co-ops have income requirements; others are open to all.
- Application processes can be more intensive and community-oriented.

SENIOR LIVING

What is Senior Living Housing?

Offers a range of housing designed for older adults who are looking to maintain their independence. Depending on the community, these types of apartments can range from independent living with minimal support to assisted living and memory care facilities with more hands-on care.

What does Senior Living mean for you?

Age restrictions apply, and these homes may offer social programs, health-related services, or accessibility accommodations. Some senior housing is income-restricted or subsidized.

Notes:

- Availability varies between independent living, assisted living, and skilled nursing.
- Ask whether the property accepts Section 8 vouchers or offers rent based on income.

SHELTER RESOURCES

What is Housing for the Homeless?

List of shelter options for singles and families. Resources listed in these categories are NOT permanent housing. By accessing shelter or connecting with an Outreach worker, you will be added to the local Coordinated Entry list for housing programs that work with those experiencing homelessness.

What does Homeless Housing mean for you?

These programs may offer temporary or long-term housing combined with case management and supportive services to help stabilize housing.

Notes:

- You may need a referral from a service provider or entry through Coordinated Entry
- Eligibility may be based on chronic homelessness, income, or vulnerability assessments.

MARKET RATE HOUSING

What is Market Rate Housing?

This refers to apartments that are considered market rate, meaning the property is not considered an affordable housing complex or subsidized apartment community. Rents at these properties are usually set at market prices and may be comparable to other rents in the area.

What does Market Rate Housing mean for you?

You are responsible for paying the full rent amount set by the property owner or management. These rents may reflect average prices in the area and can vary depending on location, amenities, and demand.

Notes:

- Market-rate units do not offer rental assistance. You must meet the income requirements set by the landlord.
- Rent may increase annually and is not capped by public housing guidelines.
- Approval is typically based on credit, rental history, and income (often 2.5-3x the monthly rent).
