

Where Academic Excellence Meets Compassion

As the first U.S. school to implement Emory University's SEE Learning® (Social, Emotional, and Ethical Learning), we place heart and mind at the center of every classroom experience — empowering students to grow into thoughtful, capable leaders in an ever-changing world.

About us

Opening Fall 2026 and Serving K-4

Ocean of Wisdom School is a tuition-free public charter school where rigorous academics meet a compassionate, student-centered approach.

Guided by SEE Learning® — Emory University's internationally recognized curriculum inspired by the Dalai Lama — we nurture resilience, ethical understanding, and empathy in every learner

Why SEE Learning® Matters

Boosts Academic Achievement

Higher performance, graduation, and college enrollment rates

Strengthens Essential Life Skills

Learners engage and grow through confidence, resilience, and empathy

Nurtures Health & Well-Being

Less stress and more connection enhances emotional balance
