Day Two - Monte-Carlo

On one of the best stretches of the Mediterranean, this classic luxury destination is one of the most sought-after addresses in the world. With all the high-rise towers you have to look hard to find the Belle Époque grace of yesteryear.

Day Three - Cannes

Cannes is pampered with the luxurious year-round climate that has made it one of the most popular resorts in Europe. Cannes was an important sentinel site for the monks who established themselves on Île St-Honorat in the Middle Ages.

Day Four - Saint-Tropez

At first glance, it really doesn't look all that impressive. There's a pretty port with cafés charging €5 for a coffee and a picturesque old town in sugared-almond hues, but there are many prettier in the hills nearby.

Day Five - Toulon

Toulon, located in the southeastern part of France, is a charming and vibrant city known for its beautiful coastlines, rich history, and lively atmosphere. Situated on the Mediterranean Sea, Toulon offers visitors a perfect blend of stunning natural beauty.

Cannes

Stunning region on the French Riviera, famous for yachts, the rich and famous and the Cannes Film Festival.

Saint-Tropez

Saint Tropez, a name synonymous with azure seas, glamorous lifestyles, and a haven for artists and celebrities, is a small coastal town located on the French Riviera in southeastern France. Known for its picturesque beauty, rich history, and as a playground for the elite, this Mediterranean gem has evolved from a sleepy fishing village to a jet-set destination where luxury yachts and designer boutiques are the norm.

Toulon

Toulon, located in the southeastern part of France, is a charming and vibrant city known for its beautiful coastlines, rich history, and lively atmosphere. Situated on the Mediterranean Sea, Toulon offers visitors a perfect blend of stunning natural beauty, cultural heritage, and modern amenities.

Day Six - Mahón, Menorca

The capital of Menorca since 1721, Mahon has a impressive natural deep water harbour, which is one of the largest in the world. This, coupled with its strategic location, has made it a stronghold for many nations throughout history.

Day Seven - Palma de Mallorca

If you look north of the cathedral (La Seu, or the seat of the bishopric, to Mallorcans) on a map of the city of Palma, you can see around the Plaça Santa Eulàlia a jumble of tiny streets that made up the earliest settlement.

Day Eight - Barcelona

The infinite variety of street life, the nooks and crannies of the medieval Barri Gòtic, the ceramic tile and stained glass of Art Nouveau facades, the art and music, the throb of street life, the the food (ah, the food!) one way or another, Barcelona will find a way to get your full attention.

Day Eight - Black Lane Chauffeur Transfer

- Pick Up Location: Barcelona Cruise Terminal
- Drop Off Location: Nobu Hotel Barcelona
- Vehicle Type: Premium SUV

Day Eight - Nobu Barcelona

The hotel is located close to the charming neighbourhood Eixample giving guests a genuinely Catalan feel of the city. Located near Plaza de Espana and just a mere stroll away from the high-speed rail and conference center Fira de Barcelona.

Minorca

Despite its popularity as a beach holiday paradise, the Balearic Island of Minorca remains one of the loveliest, most unspoilt islands in the Mediterranean. The local population support the control of resort development and the woodlands and fields of its hilly rural interior remain largely untouched by the tourism trade.

Palma de Mallorca

Palma capital of the autonomous region of the Balearic Islands is a lively cosmopolitan city in true Spanish tradition its centre forming a bustling maze of shopping centres narrow lanes and restored buildings surrounded by ruined ancient city walls and modern boulevards. Like mainland Spain Mallorca was under Moorish control between the ninth and 13th centuries until the re-conquest by Jaume I of Aragon. The Moorish heritage is still evident as are the remnants of Palma's golden years when it rose to wealth and prominence in the 15th century as the main port of call between Europe and Africa.

Mallorca

The island of Mallorca (Majorca), off the east coast of Spain, is the largest in the Balearic Island group, which collectively forms one of the most popular beach holiday destinations in the Mediterranean, if not the world.

Barcelona

The enchanting city of Barcelona is a visual delight, and has an atmosphere that combines elegance and sophistication with provincial charm. In exploring its streets you'll discover medieval romance in its Gothic quarter and the awe-inspiring delights of the fantastic and sometimes outrageous Art Nouveau architecture of Gaudí and his contemporaries.
