

茶

香港

The International Chinese Snuff Bottle Society

1990 Convention Program

Wednesday October 31

12:00 p.m.-2:00 p.m. — Lobby of Hennessy Room
Registration

12:00 p.m. — Hennessy Room
Opening of dealer display

3:00 p.m. — Granville Room
Opening Reception

4:00 p.m. — Stanley Room
Opening of special display of snuff bottles from private
Hong Kong collections

8:00 p.m. — Granville Room
Members' Talent Contest

Thursday November 1

10:00 a.m. — Granville Room
Illustrated lecture by Emily Byrne Curtis of New Jersey: "The Kangxi Emperor's Glasshouse"

Question and answer period

香港

1:30 p.m. — Buses depart for three independent events which will be shared by each group on a rotating basis over the next two days.

Group 1 — Visit the apartment of Mary and George Bloch for in-depth viewing of collections with commentary by the owners and Robert Kleiner. Upon leaving the apartment, visit Fung Ping Shan Museum of the Hong Kong University to view display of snuff bottles from the Hong Kong Chinese Collectors Snuff Bottle Society.

Group 2 — Visit to the home of Blossom and Hugh Moss to see collections and to experience the creative process through objects, painting and music with commentary.

Group 3 — Visit to the Chinese University to view the current exhibition "Chinese Lacquer." Lecture by Dr. Mayching Kao, curator of the art gallery. A tour of the region will be part of the afternoon's experience.

5:00 p.m. — Buses depart for Chinese Arts and Crafts Exhibition Hall to see the premier showing of imperial snuff bottles coming from the Forbidden City Museum in Beijing.

6:30 p.m. — Dinner hosted by the Chinese Arts and Crafts Merchandise Association.

9:30 p.m. — Buses depart for hotel.

Dealers' Room open

Friday November 2

10:00 a.m. — Granville Room

Illustrated lecture by Hugh M. Moss of Hong Kong and England: "The Lingnan School of Inside-Painted Snuff Bottles"

Question and answer period

1:30 p.m. — Groups 1, 2 and 3 alternating locations as previously announced.

香港

6:00 p.m. — Boat trip to Lamma Island with dinner hosted by Mary and George Bloch, Lindsey and Bob Hall, and Blossom and Hugh Moss.

Dealers' Room open

Saturday November 3

10:00 a.m. — Granville Room

Illustrated lecture by John E. M. Ault of Hong Kong and Bangkok, Thailand: "Thai-Chinese Snuff Bottles"

Question and answer period

1:30 p.m. — Groups 1, 2 and 3 alternating locations as previously announced.

Free evening

Dealers' Room open

Sunday November 4

9:30 a.m. — Granville Room

Informal meeting of members

10:30 a.m. — Educational Fund Benefit Auction led by Robert Hall, Esq.

Free afternoon for shopping

FORMAL BANQUET

(Black tie desired but not required)

7:00 p.m. — Ballroom Foyer
Cocktails

8:00 p.m. — Ballroom
Dinner

10:00 p.m. — Orchestra and dancing
Remarks and Awards

香港

The International
Chinese Snuff Bottle
Society

22nd Annual Convention

October 31,
November 1, 2, 3, 4

Hotel Conrad

Hong Kong