WORKING WITH IMAGE AND TEXT
EXPERIMENT TWO

Choose something that doesn't (seem to) change.

Visit this thing or place each day for an extended period.

Each time you visit, write about what you find. Be meticulous.

You might also consider making a photograph of this thing or place on your daily visits.

This writing prompt is number 17 in Lucy Ives's book "three six five: prompts, acts, divinations".*

READING

REMEMBRANCE: The Child I Never Was by Annette Kuhn

BRING TO CLASS

Bring one photograph to class. Anything goes. This image could be from your family photo album or a cellphone image made yesterday.

RESOURCES

three six five: prompts, acts, divinations by Lucy Ives published by Siglio Press:
https://sigliopress.com/titles/three-six-five-365-lucy-ives/