

Participation & use guidelines Bivouac - Berghut Halverwege

1. Registration & participation

- Interested in staying? Send a message to reserveringen@berghuthalverwege.nl with your preferred dates and number of guests.
- Each request is reviewed individually. The bivouac exists primarily to support the activities of the hut and its community (exhibitions, workshops, etc.).

2. Community contribution

- The bivouac is not a commercial accommodation. We invite participants to make a voluntary contribution towards the ongoing maintenance of the space. This amount is entirely your choice, there is no fixed price.

3. Arrival & departure

- We typically welcome arrivals from 17:00 and kindly ask departure by 11:00.
- Need something different? Let us know, we'll find a solution that works for everyone.

4. The space

- The bivouac is an intimate space for 1–2 persons atop Berghut Halverwege, with views of the Vaalserberg and Schneeberg.
- Basic amenities include electricity, heating, and running water (hot and cold), though please note there is no shower.
- Restroom facilities are located on the ground floor of the main hut.
- Participants bring their own sleeping bag and bedding unless otherwise agreed.
- A simple breakfast supplement can be arranged as part of the hut's community offerings – this is separate from the bivouac participation fee and offered only where schedule permits. If interested, please inform us in advance of your stay.

5. Flexibility & changes

- Plans can change unexpectedly. Please inform us as soon as possible if you need to cancel or adjust your stay.
- Depending on availability and timing, we'll do our best to accommodate.

6. Conduct & care

- Respect the hut, the natural surroundings, and fellow participants.
- On the terrace, only conversation is permitted – no music or amplified sound.
- Quiet hours: 22:00 to 07:00.
- No parties, loud music, or disruptive behaviour inside or outside the hut.
- Pets are welcome with prior arrangement.
- Please look after yourself and the space. All stays are at your own responsibility.

7. Liability

- We trust participants to treat the bivouac with care. Any damage incurred during your stay is your responsibility.
- Personal belongings are kept at your own risk.

8. Force majeure

- In cases of extreme weather, natural hazards, or other unforeseeable situations, we may need to cancel or reschedule. We will communicate this as early as possible and discuss alternatives.
