FR PEDRO WRITES: LOVE IS FORGIVING

This Sunday's readings invite us to reflect on the transforming power of forgiveness. Sirach warns us against clinging to anger and resentment: if we are honestly grateful for God's tender mercy and forgiveness, we must also be willing to show God's mercy in our relationships to others. Our Lord makes this teaching vivid in the parable of the unforgiving servant. Do you think you could identify yourself with any of the attitudes of this parable? Parables generally don't use names so that we can apply them to anyone, even to ourselves!

As the servant who was forgiven, we too, have benefitted many times from God's mercy. Hence, it is fair to be forgiving to others. Every time we pray the Lord's Prayer, we ask to be forgiven as we forgive others. Forgiveness does not pretend that wrongdoing does not matter, nor does it always remove the need for justice or wise boundaries. Rather, it means refusing to let anger and resentment have the final word.

Pope John Paul II wrote that God's mercy "implies the acceptance of 'brotherhood', precisely because God is the Father of all, even of our erring brother" (8/Sept/1999). To forgive is therefore to recognise that the person who has hurt us remains someone loved by God—and that we ourselves depend upon the same mercy. St Paul reminds us that "whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's" (Rom 14:7-9). Hence, all our relationships, conflicts and responsibilities must be lived before the Lord.

This week, let us bring to prayer anyone against whom we still hold resentment, or someone who holds resentment to us. Perhaps we can take one small step towards reconciliation: a prayer, a conversation, or simply the decision to release the desire for revenge.

On Monday, 14th September, we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, the sign of Christ's extreme and forgiving love; on Tuesday, 15th September, Our Lady of Sorrows, remembering Mary's forgiving compassion at the foot of the Cross. Both showed their extreme love by forgiving the worst, may we learn from them always to forgive.

These are our usual Mass times. For any changes or special celebrations, please check the back page for this week's full schedule.

EDUCATION SUNDAY - SECOND COLLECTION

Education Sunday falls on the second Sunday of September (13th September, in 2026) just as the new academic year starts and is one of the oldest Days of Special Prayer in England and Wales, established 178 years ago in 1848. It provides an opportunity to celebrate and give thanks to all involved in making Catholic schools places of enlightenment, as well as to look forward in anticipation of the year ahead. Click the link to find: More information. Donations can also be made via the Contactless card machines at the back of church. Thank you for your support.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL - AWARENESS MONTH

SVP: Christmas Parcels - This week, we continue to share information about our work in the Parish focussing on our annual Christmas Parcels distribution.

Over recent years we have provided over 100 parcels to families and individuals in the local area, containing seasonal and basic food items as well as a voucher to help with the expense of this time of year. We rely on the generosity of parishioners to finance this initiative, and this year on 31st October we're holding a fund-raising evening to help towards the cost of the parcels (see details under Parish News, page 3).

If you are interested in coming to our October fund-raising event, finding out more about our work and/or becoming a member please email: svp@stpeterswinchester.org.uk.

Donations: Account Name: B170404 SVP St Peter-Winchester; Sort Code: 60-60-04; Account Number: 46075542. If preferred, please donate via the Contactless machines or use the SVP envelopes at the back of church. "For it is in giving that we receive." ❤️

FR MARK - FAREWELL GIFT

As Fr Mark prepares to leave the parish, many may be wondering how they might express their thanks and good wishes. While it is customary to offer a farewell gift, Fr Mark would prefer not to receive one, having only recently celebrated his Silver Anniversary and been touched by the generosity shown to him at that time. Instead, if you would like to mark his departure, he would be very grateful if you would consider supporting CAFOD's Emergency Response Fund, which provides vital assistance to communities affected by conflict, disaster and humanitarian crises.

Donations can be made most easily by following this link or by scanning the QR code above.

Thank you for your generosity and prayers as Fr Mark prepares for the next chapter of his ministry.

NEW ALTAR SERVERS

Fr Mark would like to invite any of our children who have made their First Holy Communion this year to become Altar Servers in our parish.

Altar Serving is a wonderful privilege and blessing and also a commitment that I personally value very much. I remember being nervous when my dear dad took me along to my first training session, but loved it and served regularly in my home parish until I went away to study.

We will be hosting an information and training session on Saturday 10th October, 11am – 12 noon at St. Peter's Church. Parents and children will be able to ask any questions, and we will also give them some basic training, including how to put on the alb.

The training is valid for anyone wishing to serve in our parish, at any of our 4 churches.

There's no commitment at this stage – just an opportunity to find out more. There will be another training session later on in the year.

If you and your child would like to come, there will be a brief consent form to fill in, but for now please do save the date. Of course, there are other ways in which our children can serve God and the parish at Mass, such as welcoming, reading, or in the children's music ministry. Please contact: Andrea H - welcoming@stpeterswinchester.org.uk; Sarah W - readers@stpeterswinchester.org.uk; or Rosanne W (music) - rosanne@stpeterswinchester.org.uk and they can tell you about the "next steps".
