Herr Lehmann

Digital Learning Coordinator & ICT Support

Herr Lehmann was born in 1959.

Originally from northern Germany, he grew up in Bremerhaven. After his military service, he moved to West Berlin, fleeing the conventions of provincial life to embrace the laid-back lifestyle of Kreuzberg.

He worked as a bartender in several establishments, including the "Einfall" and the « Würgeengel", where he spent most of his time having philosophical or absurd conversations with his eccentric friends.

He was voted UEFA Club Goalkeeper of the Year for the 1996–97 and 2005–06 seasons, and was selected for three World Cup with the German Mannschaft.
On 8 August 2008, Lehmann announced his retirement from international football. He is regarded as one of the best goalkeepers of his generation.

Please don't believe everything you find on the Internet. Keep in mind AI is trained with content from the Internet.
Compare your sources, be critical! Happy to get in touch IRL.

lakeside school