

KAT6 Foundation Leadership Update Q&A

Q: Why are Emile and Natacha stepping down?

A: After much thoughtful consideration they made a personal decision to step down together from their roles. We are grateful for their service, and we respect their choice.

Q: Is the Foundation still stable?

A: Yes. The Foundation remains strong, financially secure, and fully operational. The Board of Directors is overseeing responsibilities during the transition.

Q: Who is leading the organization now?

A: Jordan Muller will serve as Interim Executive Director, working closely with the Board to maintain continuity and coordination.

Q: What happens to research projects?

A: All research partnerships, grants, and scientific activities will continue without interruption.

Q: Will family programs be affected?

A: No. All programs and initiatives remain active and unchanged.

Q: Is the Science Committee still functioning?

A: Yes. The Science Committee members continue their work, and all scientific commitments remain steady.

Q: Will you be hiring new leadership?

A: Yes. The Foundation is continuing to grow and will be posting several roles in the coming weeks.

Q: How can I get involved?

A: We know there are many within our community who have talent, skill, and the drive to get involved. You are welcome to apply for upcoming roles or share openings with interested friends or colleagues.
